

FYI - The Lord is getting ready for the movement of all people as He is about to divide all people of the world into two Kingdoms, one of Light and one of Darkness. In that line, the Lord gave the following vision to Mrs. Bobbie Westfall on the morning of the 19th of December.

The Vision of the Pleasing Road

I was praying for the Lord to show us what is about to happen and what we should be cautious of. After I finished my 6:00 AM Prayer, the Lord revealed a vision to me. I was in my car (Jeep). In the passenger's seat there was a teenager of about 15-16 years old. I could not identify who it was. I was taking him to some place he had to go. I was driving down a road that looked familiar. I asked him if he knew the way, and he said yes, confidently. So I began driving, and after some time we came to a road that went to the left. It looked like a major road.

I asked the youth in the car if we are to take this road, and he said yes take it. So I turned off the road that I was familiar with, and onto the road going to the left. This road to the left looked very good. It was bigger than the road I had been on, so it seemed that it could be a road that would lead us to the right place. And the youth in the car had said to me that he knew the way, and he had said that this was the way to go.

Initially the road was beautiful and we were enjoying the journey as we traveled down it. Then a strange thing began to occur. The road started to become narrow. This continued for a long time, and it began to become concerning. However, there were no other roads to turn off onto. Soon the road became so narrow that it was not possible even to turn the car around.

Suddenly the road became so narrow it was just enough for my jeep. In front of me and beside me was like being on top of a high cliff. In front of us the road was a complete drop off. It was like a bottomless pit for I could not see anything but air in front of us and below us. It was very frightening. I stopped and took my right hand and put it on my forehead. I prayed to the Lord to please help us get out of this situation. It was now obvious to that this youth had no knowledge of the Way, even though they had fully felt that they did.

I then awoke and I asked the Lord for clarity. Throughout the day I kept revisiting this vision and asking the Lord to explain it to me.

This morning, the 20th, she said that she believes that what the Lord was revealing to her was that we have to guard against those who come and say that they know the right way, for they think in their own wisdom that they have understanding; but they may not be testing everything with the fullness of the Scriptures, and they go forth on their journey without the road map or without receiving the instructions from Him. These will lack the knowledge of His plan for the times. And, although they believe that they know His Will, they actually do not know the Way to where He is, even though they think that they do. Because they follow their own interests they will select a road that seemed to them to be correct and that it was the correct Way to Righteousness, but instead it was the wrong way and it will lead them to their judgment and to practically all loss of a way to return back to Him.

I believe that the Lord was also revealing that we are to obey the fullness of the Scriptures to learn the instruction of His Way at this Time, and that we must fully prepare ourselves with His Plan. We have to rightly divide the Word of Truth and not just take what we think is enough for us. We must check whether the Spirit we are hearing is of Him, or is it another spirit. For Satan's spirits are enticing, and their instructions seem pleasing to the ear. But, the Lord has put in place a Way and it is given to those who are zealous to hear all His instruction, even if it is not what we want to hear from Him.

I believe the youth that was around 15-16 is symbolic of those who believe that they have come to the Lord as children and that they believe that they have grown in knowledge and they have selected the path they desire to follow. It seems that this youth was in many ways like much of the youth of this day, for they feel like they are wise and that they are entitled. They believe that they know more than the adults, and even more than the ones whom the Lord has raised up for them to instruct them.

It is certainly a call for each of us to inspect our lives and make sure that we are prepared with the correct knowledge. The Lord has warned us that the troubles are coming suddenly. He says that our flight out of Babylon should be pre-planned out in accordance to His instruction. We cannot have that knowledge if we are not seeking it deeply.

Consider what the Lord said about His ministry of earth. He went and did the Way of Good for many in such cities as Bethsaida and Capernaum, including the healing many. The people surely liked the miracles. Yet, He said that in the day of Judgment it will be as bad for the people in those cities as it was for Sodom and Gomorrah. Why? For the people were not willing to take on the reality of their sins and the reality of the sins of their nation.

It is not going to be enough to do Good for people, we have to AWAKEN the Bride to her sins and the sins of the nation that she is held also into account for. We have to do Good Works and cry out the warning of the message of Jonah, that judgment is coming. The Lord was not lacking, or lame in His Ways, when He said that the only message that the Father has given for these people of this Day to receive, is the message of their coming destruction. We have to deliver that message while doing it in the Ways of His Words, and then we release the provision of the Spirit of Shaking on the people. Jonah told them exactly what was about to happen to the people, so it is important that we continue to seek out the knowledge of what the Lord is about to do, and to continuously be watching. That is the Message of the Will of God for this Day, and it is the instruction of the Way of God to deliver that message in this Day in the same way that Jesus delivered His Messages, through the attention of speaking it through the enabling of His Words (For example, speaking from a boat on the Sea. Or, when He was speaking on the side of the mountain to those who had come to Him, and thus after this He enabled the Words to do the Good Work of provision to feed them.)

Remember also that the Lord said in Luke 17:28-30 that in this Day it would be like it was in the Day of Lot.

Luke 17:28-30 ²⁸Likewise as it was also in the days of Lot: They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; ²⁹but on the day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. ³⁰Even so will it be in the day when the Son of Man is revealed.

Remember that the Lord had made known what He was going to do to Sodom and Gomorrah to Abraham. Also, the Scriptures testify that Abraham understood for on that morning of the destruction, Abraham has found standing on a mountain overlooking the plain facing Sodom, and he was interceding. Surely, from the time that Abraham learned of what was about to happen to Sodom and Gomorrah, he had been interceding and seeking understanding, for on that morning it occurred, he knew to be praying and watching. So the knowledge was known in advance. Lot on the other hand was knowledgeable of the Words of God, having been taught by Abraham, but he was not watching. When the angels made it suddenly aware to him, he took it as complacently as a man could, for instead of staying up that fateful night and interceding, Lot and his wife went to bed. Lot and his wife had gone and tried to convince their children, but because they had not prepared them of the Lord's anger over the sins of their city and their nation, they ignored the warning. Lot and his family was not in tune with the Lord's anger over the sins of the nation that they so willingly lived in and had performed in its ways without mourning and grieving for its sins, and they had thereby, through their complacency, had given agreement to its ways.

Even after the angels removed Lot and his wife from Sodom, they continued to argue against the instructions given to them. And Lot's wife infamously turned to look longingly back at what she was leaving (Like the people the Lord brought out of Egypt would later do, and they would all die in the wilderness for their willfulness to desire their own wisdom and not pay attention to all of God's Ways and Instructions.), and Lot's wife was turned into a pillar of salt instantly. The result of Lot's own life's outcome is also a reflection of a man, who through his own willful leadership, had led his family off the cliff, and that even after shown that he did not have the right instructions, would still not obey all the instructions of God, and thereby his legacy is in children who rebelled continuously against those who followed the instructions of God.

The Lord is saying that it is important that His people take responsibility in their heart for their sins and to accept the news that they do not like, and that is God holds them accountable for the sins of the City/Nation that they choose to live in the way of. In this Day when He is telling them to come out, and to not take any of their old traditions with them, it is important to also remember that He is only going to save the humble and those walking in humility, accepting the fact that we have not lived in mourning over all the sins of the nation, but have indeed enjoyed and partaken of its ways that are abominable to God, and that we have done so without remorse towards Him. Yet, we expect Him to let us receive His Kingdom because we are worthy and obedient? Nope! It does not work that way.

We need to be praying in mourning for Him like an only son, and we need to pray zealously for a supernatural revival of Truth in this nation. Remember that the Lord says in Ezekiel 43 that He will allow His Laws and Ways to be taught to those of this Day who are found mourning for their sins and the shame of their lifestyles they have kept. In Ezekiel 9, just before the destruction of Jerusalem by the armies of Babylon that the Lord brought against His people because of their entitlement attitudes and arrogance of their believing that they knew His Way, that the Lord had an angel go through and put a seal of protection only on those who were zealously mourning for the sins of their nation. The Lord says that at this time He is about to come and send His angels throughout the world. The angels will also go through with the book opened, and since the Lord does not change His Ways, they will put a seal on those who are zealously mourning for His Kingdom to come and for the forgiveness of the real sins of the nation.

We are awaiting a supernatural movement of the Holy Spirit to fall on the world - a greater shaking that precedes the terrible trembling that is to come upon the entire world. My friend Daniel sent me this intriguing note from history. It reveals what a supernatural movement can happen when people remember the sins of a nation whose military has been used by Satan to promote the ways of satan's kingdom on the earth, and they call out to God for His Mercy to fall upon them. The Lord wants to pour out the rain of revival immediately, for the Great Tribulation - World War III - the War that the Lord says will be the worst that ever has been, or that ever will be - is standing immediately at our front door. It should be so clear that the entire world should now be able to see that this is true. The only hope for America is a revival of repentance for the sins of the nation and for the zealous seeking of the Knowledge of His Truth as is made known in Hebrews 10:25-31, Proverbs 1:20-33, Revelation 3:14-22, and Zephaniah 3:8-9. Daniel 8:12 reveals the truth of the American military, for it has been freely given over via deceit to the use of the pompous little horn who is leading the One World Order and who rules over all the gold and silver treasuries (Rothschild and those following him), to bring forth his evil Order. Consider what happened when these men prayed on the USS North Carolina before the Civil War that was also instigated by agents of the Rothschild family.

"Revival Aboard the USS North Carolina"

The year was 1857

The battleship USS North Carolina, a 74-gun ship of the line launched in 1820 at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, was anchored in New York harbor. Her long years of duty were now reduced to being a naval receiving ship.

Among the many sailors on board were four young Christian crewmen, who decided that they should meet and pray. Looking for a private place for prayer, they met on the lower deck. Falling upon their knees, they instantly were filled with the Presence of God. So great was their joy that they started to sing and praise the Lord.

Wicked sailors, who were upon the top deck, heard the jubilant singing and decided to investigate. Upon discovering that it was coming from a secret prayer meeting, the vile bunch decided to mock and jeer. Descending the iron stairs to the place of prayer, the mob fell under the powerful presence of the Holy Spirit. Their jeers turned to bitter tears. Conviction overcame them and they began to cry out to God for mercy and forgiveness. For several days, the prayer meeting continued. Hundreds of the crew were converted. The captain of the ship sent a message ashore requesting the help of pastors and ministers to come and pray with the sailors.

The USS North Carolina became a bastion of revival. Converted sailors, upon completing their training, were assigned to other ships in the fleet. Wherever they went, revival broke out. Revival swept the US fleet. Prayer is a powerful force!

May these days and His ways come again to us -

Below this email is another Prophecy that is absolutely correct for these very days. In many writings I have revealed the fact that everything is going to change and the people of the Lord have not been prepared. I have made known from John 9:4 and other Scriptures that the things that you did previously will suddenly fail and not work. It is because even the Laws of Science is about to change as the Lord brings His Kingdom upon the earth immediately following the Great Tribulation. Are you ready?

Please read this Prophetic Word from August 22, 2006 and understand that the Bible indicates that this is coming this year of 2012. Remember that in the Bible the Lord says that He is going to divide the people on the earth. He will separate the wicked to a desolate place in the West so that their backs are to the Western Sea and their faces to the East. And that He will separate the ones found worthy, and who are found doing righteous Good Works by the Way of His Words, to the East. Those in the East He will give Light and blessing, as He refines them for His Coming at the event known as the Rapture that will be in the fourth watch of His Night (We are now past the midway mark of the third watch of His Night). Those in the West will receive of the plagues and be in darkness.

Also, do not think that you will not flee from the afflictions of what is about to come on the earth, for the Lord makes it clear in Matthew 24 and in Mark 13 that everyone will flee. It will be that the Lord will move His people. But, if cities in mass will turn to the Lord they will be protected and they will not need to flee, for the Lord will give them protection. We are getting very late in the game. If ten people in a city will turn and pray with real mourning for the sins of the nation and the city, then the Lord will cause the revival to be poured out on those cities. Where are the true ones with hearts for God who see all their sins and the sins of the nation and the peoples? Where are those who are ashamed of their sins in their own lives and of the sins and evil ways of their nation? Are there even ten in a city who understand? Or, are we all feeling we are entitled and that we are already refined?

Food for thought.....

JUST ONE ROAR OF THE LION

22nd of August 2006

What follows is probably one of the most powerful words from the last few years. It comes from a Christian lawyer from India named Swarna Jha.

VISION: "JUST ONE ROAR OF THE LION"

He saw this vision on the 22nd of August 2006

I saw a Lion. I walked with Him to a very high rock. The Lion then climbed the rock and stood on the very top of this high rock. I stood below looking up at Him.

He let out a LOUD ROAR.

And EVERYTHING in the atmosphere / universe changed.

In a flash I had a 360 degree vision, and what I am about to relate happened in a flash, but I spent the whole of the 22nd of August just waiting on God to see in 'slow motion' what I had seen in a speedy flash, and understand what I had seen.

I was told that my mind could not grasp the vastness of the changes I saw in the vision. So I stayed at home and did not take up any duties but spent the whole day, off and on, every few hours just re-visiting this vision and seeing it unfurl in more detail, now at a speed that I could cope with. I don't think I have ever seen such a lengthy vision, condensed into a 360-degree vision flash before.

Frame by frame this is what I saw

I saw Empires fall, and wars begin.

I saw that where previously, formulas and general understanding were proven, it did not work any more, where there were people and places overflowing with money one moment, the next morning the moneyed had nothing.

I saw many 'proven' thoughts, and ways now nullified.

I saw that the balance was tipped in favour of the East.

I saw angels who had been working in the North and Northwest, recalled and sent East.

I saw children snatched out of the hands of some of the parents.

Fresh food stopped in the western area and was diverted to the East. The fertile became barren and the barren became fertile.

All this from Just One Roar of the Lion.

I saw three long lines of writing in the sky. It read:

Lost, Lost, Lost.

But below it I saw the words:

Gain , gain, gain.....where this line ended I could not see, as it just continued on, endlessly.

I saw that the East gained money, food, etc.

The losses were loss of power, prestige, money, position.

I saw:

Where a soldier stood to load his gun, to shoot, even the last single bullet he had was taken away.

Where a soldier stood ready for packing his gun, where truce had been declared, divine bullets loaded his gun, and led him to shoot.

In the universe, expected cosmic events were diverted and unexpected ones were brought forth.

Deserts bloomed, greenery was made barren. Light that had focused on the West, now moved East.

This was so sudden that it was like saying..."One morning I woke up, and all was changed".

(Scripture: Amos 3: 8:)

The lion hath roared, who will not fear? The Lord God hath spoken, who can but prophesy?

The Lion has Roared.

Dark clouds disintegrated from one place and gathered in another.

Whilst there was a West to East exchange on a large level, on individual levels there were changes too. Everything, everything, everything, was changing.

All this from, Just One Roar of the Lion.

Just that One Roar, and things from here, were flying there and vice versa. People/ Nations, who had got used to a way of life/of thinking, were in for either a shock or a surprise.

CHANGE, CHANGE, CHANGE, CHANGE, CHANGE, CHANGE, CHANGE.

The hungry were fed, and the fed, went hungry. All opposites were happening.

Many homeless were housed, and many of those with homes became homeless. Light became dark and dark became light.

Whatever the present situation, the opposite was happening.

Many rich became poor and many of the poor became rich.

All this from Just One Roar of the Lion.

Clouds that were meaning to rain, suddenly disintegrated and it rained elsewhere, where least expected.

People were in puzzlement. They said to themselves, "but I thought..." No, nothing would be as "I thought."

Many were saying, "But it always worked this way". Now no more.

For those who said, "It's never worked for me" they were surprised to know that it will, now.

Heralds blew trumpets, proclaiming: " End of empire, end of empire".

Anyone who had been a specialist, monopolist, the kingpin in any area of his life/business, now that would begin to end. Nations that had empires or aspirations building towards it, would now see the beginning of the end of those empires.

Nothing was the same. Everything, everything had changed.

Just One Roar Of The Lion.

And He Has Roared.

Empty pockets were filled, the filled emptied.

Strategic changes were taking place. Whatever had worked like clockwork would not work now. People of peace were making war, and warring nations calmed down.

For the warring nations it was like the wind was taken out of their sails.

Just as Egypt, Persia, Babylon, Rome, Britain, etc., were all once super powers/empires, but their reign and era ended, so now any 'super power' or aspirations thereof, was being diffused. Nations that were looked up to were now beginning to be looked down upon and vice versa.

Balance of power and favour had shifted East.

Angels in the West, held Gold Books. One book was titled "Most Wanted", the other "Most Favoured".

'The Most Wanted' Book had living photographs of the most evil people, the traitors etc. Each one was dealt with and disposed.

The Most Favoured, in the other gold book with living photographs, were some of those, who had lived through most desolate conditions, such were lifted up.

(All that is related here, remember, was happening all at once.)

In the midst of all this, I heard the Angels sing: Glory, Glory, Glory.

Time was sped up in some places, in others, it was slowed down.

Wild beasts were all crouching in fear, afraid. I saw the milk inside of cows curdle.

Just One Roar Of the Lion.

I saw eagles, fitted with miniature bells. The bells were so minute, it was hard to believe that if they rang any could hear. Eagles did not speak, they just carried the bells that were fitted to their beaks.

People were to 'read' the sounds.

Wheresoever the eagles flew, to some the ringing of the bells was as a very high, deafening pitch. I was not allowed to hear this high pitch sound, but it was revealed to me, that it was an unbearable/deafening high pitch sound.

But there were others who heard the same bells, which the Eagles had attached to their beaks, and to these the sound transmitted was different. It was sheer music. I heard this. Such people, had their hands lifted high and they were happily sighing and exclaiming, "Finally!"

I saw Angels collect gold crowns from those in the North, and they dipped the crowns in a smoky place (the kind of smoke one sees with dry ice), and when the crowns emerged from the smoke, they looked exactly the same, but now they were silver.

No matter in which direction I looked all had changed.

It seemed that the very nature of nature changed.

Volcanoes that were dormant, the ashes were removed, and a new fire was lit in them. It seemed that certain species, suddenly became extinct.

Reams of paper fell from the sky; paper and pens were sent down, for chroniclers and historians, for it was going to be a busy time for them.

Nothing of all creation was left untouched, at Just One Roar of The Lion.

Outside the earth looked still, but within were rapid-fire changes.

Quick, sudden, some were devastating, others surprisingly favorable, but this favor was mostly for the East.

I saw what looked like a flight-path that normally airlines describe on their brochures, as routes of flights/destinations.

For prophets, their flight -paths were moved from here to there, as if randomly, but it was not random, it was the Plan of God for prophets. Prophets will be suddenly moved, and see things from a new vantage point.

I saw some people become tar, whilst others became fountains of water.

Just One Roar Of The Lion.

Many changes took place in the Universe.

On earth, snows of old melted, and water in unlikely places froze.

It is no ordinary thing, when the Lion Roars.

Those dressed warm in the winter, had their clothes taken away, they were left naked. But the naked street-dweller was clothed.

There was a divine transfer of wealth, knowledge, and understanding.

People who'd talked and talked for years, had their mouths taped.

But as in Ezekiel 24: 2 those that had been mute for a season now spoke.

As the vision progressed I heard the Lord Say:

"My People have no roof over their head. I Am their Roof."

I was flown speedily, over building after building, and as we flew, I heard the Lord Say: " Not Mine, not Mine, not Mine, not Mine, not Mine, not Mine."

Now I was despairing. What then was God's?

Then I was shown, people in the fields, with instruments. They had no roof over their heads. These were God's own.

The buildings we flew over, were demolished by an elephant's trunk and many TV studios had a fire underneath them.

Apparently these buildings had been re-built on the same grounds where prior buildings had been condemned and burnt. These new buildings had been built on the foundations of charred remains and ashes.

I saw oil poured out from the sky, in two separate ways. One fell over people who gladly received it over them and laughed in the 'oil rain'. On the other hand, for others, the oil rain caused to be set aflame all that was below.

All that was up to the present became obsolete, and new technology, the secrets of which were hidden in nature, appeared.

Science made simple but profound discoveries. I saw Scientists have a 'Eureka' moment. For many who were researching, studying, looking for, the 'thing', it was right there before their very noses. Once they saw it they slapped their foreheads, lamenting "Silly me!"

Follies of science were exposed. The simplicity of the discoveries to come were mind-boggling.

Just One Roar Of The Lion.

The very nature of nature seemed to be changing. It was as unbelievable as Isaiah 11: 6-8, 'the wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid;.....

In some places, I saw an overabundance of wheat, which flowed into the sea, as it was so plentiful. But in other places, I saw land, which was once green, and was now parched land where nothing grew.

I saw beautiful blooms on cactus/desert plants.

He who understands these changes, will prepare.

The earth was in a global eclipse. One half had light, the other half was in darkness. It seemed that plates were shifted/removed from the earth. There were people who raged against God. "We'll do what we have to, let Him do what He wants to" they were saying.

Trees trembled. They knew that their time to be cut had come. To many, prophets and counselors were restored, but from others, the prophets and counselors departed. Sadly those from whom they departed noticed it not.

All this, by Just One Roar Of The Lion.
