

Notes of Floyd E. Taylor for Feb. 8, 2011 Teleconference Bible Study

It is the Hour! Know the Hour!

Tonight we are going to do something a little different. I would like to explain an error that I made in 2008. I was correct, but not thorough enough. It reveals our need for digging and reviewing. Because of that I have put in here tonight several Prophetic Words from December 2007. The reason is that it reveals a timing from the Lord for the Gifts and so on.

First, I would like to quickly recall to Jesus blessing the bread and fish of the 5,000 and then review this verse:

→ Matthew 24:27 "For as the lightning comes from the East and flashes to the West, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be."

Now let us look at two Prophecies or Prophetic Words that came my way today:

A Strong Word From the Lord: Focus on Me, I Will Reveal My Truth and My Power

February 8, 2011

I want you to know that I am speaking direct words to you. I am not mincing My words in this dissertation, I am speaking to you in a very direct fashion. I am asking that you maintain your focus on Me. I am telling you that time is short, and I want you to know that your God is alive and well, looking forward to that day when you will be in your eternal home forever. Now, I want you to know that the enemy is trying to distract you. Don't let him distract you. Maintain your posture of focusing on Me, and know true gladness of heart, for this is the hour of intense training of which I have spoken previously to you, beloved. Yes, this is the hour when your God will reveal His truth to you and enable you to walk in the mighty and wondrous power of His love!!!

Last Outpouring & Gathering

I kept sensing, 'Don't go to sleep; something great is about to happen.' Then this:

In a dream, I was working for a very wealthy individual (God) who owned a place on top of a mountain (the mountain of God). We were building corrals, platforms over them of which you could see forever, stocking up on a large quantity of medical supplies and rounding up cattle in the surrounding fields and hills. (Mal. 4:2) But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

There were two moderate rains during the roundup but the latter rain turned out to be such an outpouring that we had run for shelter. The three of us seemed to be on horseback (the subdued flesh) when the rain turned into a downpour, but when we ran up the mountain for shelter we were on foot. The mountain was extremely steep and difficult to climb; the strongest one ran straight up the steep part but the other two circled around an easier elevation and all met at the top. (We need to visit the Lord for strength and guidance).

As the day cleared, we were talking to the owner who instructed us to go again to gather in the roundup. We were working on a very small marble table with a small hole in it that you couldn't see but you knew it was there. We said, "You fix the hole in it and we will go," and he said, "I will take care of that." (God will fix the hole in the table of your heart so the Word will never leak out again. Man can preach the Gospel but only God can cure.) So our guide and the two of us went to round up the cattle of the largest roundup ever in a renewed strength.

I saw the globe of Earth sectioned off in four pieces, like cutting a pie -- north to south and west to east.

As of June 6th at 4:00 pm, America had not yet accepted the mighty rush of the outpouring of the Spirit and time was of the essence.

I put the following Prophetic Words in the Notes tonight because they were given in December 2007. I would like to point out that the countdown of the hour (42 months) of the Kingdom countdown began with the winter of 2008 (December 21, 2007). I say that because the Lord had me to begin writing the book "This Time of Gabriel's Warning" that is based upon Daniel 8:26. I have to admit that I now know that at the Time when I wrote that book, I did not have the full understanding of Daniel 8:26. Today when I was looking at it again, the Lord opened it up to me in new ways. Now we know the "Morning".

Sandie Freed and Garris Elkins:

"Positioned at the KING'S GATE in 2008 and The Year of ACCELERATION"

Intro by Steve Shultz:

Just this year, the Lord told me to say (and in my case it was with tears within my own household but it represented our whole region too):

"Surely the Lord, God is in this place," which is what Jacob said when he named that place Bethel.

We each have our own regions which could be named Bethel. Of course, the Lord fills the whole earth, so in a sense, the whole earth is Beth-El. This means the House of God.

There is a section below which talks about "vows." I am most into letting our "yes be yes." However, we have Scriptures such as this:

Acts 18:18, "Paul stayed on in Corinth for some time. Then he left the brothers and sailed for Syria, accompanied by Priscilla and Aquila. Before he sailed, he had his hair cut off at Cenchrea because of a vow he had taken."

When you read about vows, think of your marriage and your ongoing commitment to our Lord.

We have also included below a short word about 2008 being: "The Year of Acceleration." This acceleration has been prophesied by many and we all have been waiting for it!

Blessings,

Gabriel foretold that the Vision of the Evening and Morning is True. This is the Vision the Lord foretold in Ezekiel 12:26-28

The Fire of the Sword of the Evening Twilight has come! The Harvest Judgment is at Hand! Then Comes the Morning and the Night! Be aware, for Gabriel warns that what the Lord Proclaimed is TRUE!

- ☆ Daniel 8:26 ²⁶"And the vision of the Evening and Morning that was told is true; therefore seal up the vision, for it refers to many days in the future."
- ☆ Ezekiel 12:26-28 ²⁶"And again the Word of the Lord came to me, saying, ²⁷"Son of man, look, the house of Israel is saying, 'The vision that he sees is for many days from now, and he prophesies for a times far off.' ²⁸"Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God: "None of My Word will be postponed any more, but the Word which I speak will be done," says the Lord God."

Garris Elkins: 2008--The Year of Acceleration

The year 2008 will be a "Year of Acceleration" for God's people. God has already empowered His Church with gifts and anointing, and now He is about to press the accelerator and move the Church at speeds of life and growth not seen in recent history. God is ready to move us at "warp-speed" past old barriers and old obstacles that have stood in our way.

In 2008, God will accelerate the Church financially, relationally, and into a new anointing in the marketplace. This acceleration is not to get the world ready for His coming--but it is to get the Church up to eternal speed as we engage our calling.

God will move His people at such an accelerated speed that the enemy will only see us as a blur. We will not be a vulnerable, slow-moving target as in years past. Satan will try to attack, but he will only be shooting at a blur. God will deny the enemy a stationary bull's eye.

- God will accelerate your restoration financially. You will ask, "How did God get us to this place of wholeness?"
- God will accelerate your broken relationships. You will ask, "How did God restore our fellowship?"
- God will accelerate your ministry. You will ask, "How did God open this closed door?"

The Lord is asking that we press into Him and sit down in the midst of His intimacy. This acceleration is not about human effort--it is about trust. Like a child that sits in the passenger seat of the family car while the father drives home at night, there is a sense of safety and security.

Take a seat. Hold on. Trust. God has positioned you to move with Him. He is beginning to press "the accelerator."

Sandie Freed: Positioned at the King's Gate in 2008

Last year the Lord spoke to me and said we were to believe for "Open Heavens in 2007 and be positioned to go through the gate in 2008." What I have witnessed in this calendar year of 2007 (the Gregorian calendar) is a "Bethel experience." By that I am referring to Jacob who, on his way to Haran, came to a certain place and had a dream where God opened the Heavens and revealed His covenant with mankind.

As believers, each of us has been brought to that same certain place. A certain place is defined Scripturally not only as a space, but also as a "standing place." In other words, God leads us into specific circumstances to empower us to "stand" upon a new revelation. When God opens the Heavens and reveals a particular part of His covenant or prophetic promise, we must also take a firm stand in that revelatory place! Many of us are experiencing times when it appears that we are not experiencing the fullness of God's covenant, but please hear me! Some of us are in the process of cycling out of old patterns of captivity.

As a prophetess of God, I am saying to you just as Jeremiah sent a message to those in Babylonian captivity, God says for you to BUILD! Yes, begin to build, begin to plant and make plans to live and reproduce! Though it looks one way in the natural, we can count on the faithfulness of God. He is opening the Heavens for us to prosper and we must begin to stand upon His Word. Our sure weapon in this season is the Sword of the Lord, His sure Word!

God is Turning Things Around on Your Behalf!

If you have been in a hard place, know today that the Lord is turning things around on your behalf. Regardless of what type of captivity you have experienced, God is opening the Heavens for you. We are living in the same prophetic times as when Jeremiah wrote to those in Babylonian captivity and encouraged them to keep on living for God. The prophet encouraged them with the word of the Lord and said for them to BUILD and PLANT! Yes! God instructed His children to refuse to focus on their circumstances, but to rather build, plant and reproduce right where they were until He released them.

Dear ones, God indeed wants to cycle you out of captivity and out of your wilderness. However, until the process of "cycling out" is completed, we must continue to believe God and to build upon His promises--right where we are. I am not saying to settle in; I am encouraging you to build for God while in the midst of trials and tribulations. The devil will always bring trouble--sometimes "double trouble"--but if we focus on the problem and not the Problem-Solver, then we become self-focused.

Self-focused saints murmur and complain and then become consumed with self-pity. Self-pity is dangerous because we open our mouths and speak things which should never be spoken. Remember, the power of life and death are in the tongue; so let's be careful with what we say as God is shifting us into seasons of blessing. To speak negatively could even affect our future, thus keeping us in the wilderness even longer!

Let's look at what Jeremiah said to those in Babylonian captivity:

"Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon; Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them; Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished. And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace." Jeremiah 29:4-7

A Place of "Arising"

When referring to that certain place where God led Jacob, it is not only a place to take a firm stand, but it is also a place to arise. The Lord opened the Heavens to Jacob and showed him a ladder which reached from Heaven to earth with angels ascending and descending. The last time I studied this passage, I heard the Lord say that when He opens the Heavens at any time and releases divine revelation, angels ascend and descend upon that "ladder" of revelation. I know Jesus is the ladder which connected Heaven to earth, but in the natural, a ladder is used to reach a new level.

Revelation comes down from Heaven and touches earth. However, we can each "ascend" in faith and relationship with the Father to receive revelation to change our earth. If we want to begin to transform our world, we need to first touch Heaven and hear from God. Revelation empowers us with authority to arise from where we are and take a firm stand on God's covenant promises.

Making a Vow

Jacob realized God was in that certain time and place in his life and as a result he arose, built an altar unto God, and vowed to give God a tenth of all he had. Thus, the principle of tithing to the Lord was practiced. (My point is not sharing about the tithe in this article, my point here is--Jacob made "a vow"). A vow is important to God. I believe He leads us to certain places and into certain circumstances where we do make vows. Many of us have made a vow to God. Most likely when we were saved, we vowed to God that we would serve Him for all of our life. Dear ones, if we do not arise today and stand, the enemy will come to steal our vow!

Delilah seduced Samson and his vow to the Lord. I have written extensively about this very subject in my new book, Destroying the Threefold Demonic Cord: Discerning and Defeating Jezebel, Athaliah and Delilah (to be released in January 2008), which exposes how the stronghold of Delilah attempts to steal our vows to God. When we go through difficult times or seasons, during which God is releasing us from captivity, it is easy to be seduced by a false voice.

Satan will attempt to come to us with a false prophetic word and lead us in a wrong direction. He is an "evil messenger" with "evil messages" and if not on alert, we will believe the lies of the enemy and thus, be seduced away from our vows. Dear ones hear me today! The enemy has evil messages being sent to the gates of your lives.

Evil Messengers

Watchmen on the wall look for two things--invading troops and messengers (discerning who to let in the gate and who to keep out). We need to be on high alert levels concerning the evil messengers who attempt to invade the gates of our thoughts. If the enemy gets control of our minds and thoughts, he will seduce us and strip us of our determination to go through the gates in 2008.

Jezebel never saw Elijah face-to-face. She sent "evil messages" to him through her "messenger." Dear ones, the devil doesn't have to stare us in the eye--he just sends demons to us to speak into our thoughts and then he invades our imaginations! The result is a "vain imagination." It is the same thing that happened to Elijah when he received Jezebel's evil message; he "saw that." This means he imagined himself dead! Elijah saw in his mind and imagination, his defeat by Jezebel's hand and as a result, he took off running in the opposite direction of his destiny!

"And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and also how he had slain all the prophets with the sword. Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time. And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beersheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there. But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers." 1 Kings 19:1-4

How often have we entertained the same vain imaginations and thus detained our destiny? A vain imagination is described by Paul as an empty, foolish or fruitless thought. (See Romans 1:21). The voice of the enemy is always null and void of power unless we give it a place or a seated position of authority. Saints of the Most High--it is time to guard the gates of our thoughts and minds.

Establishing God's Government in 2008

According to the prophetic word given to Judah, the scepter would remain in his hand. This meant that Judah would shift and establish government and the tribe of Judah would remain in authority forever. Since Judah means "praise," then we can also say that "praise shifts and establishes government!" The gate in 2008 involves divine government in our individual lives first, and then we can shift the atmosphere around us.

If we need God's divine order established, then we also need His government in operation. Saints, we can establish God's government if we begin to be a people of praise. I know it sounds too simple, but it is true. The Lord has always planned that we rule and reign--it began in the Garden when He gave Adam dominion. However, it was also prophesied over Judah, one of the sons of Jacob (and his descendents), that he would rule over the land. This is one way we learn to arise and stand in our positions of authority--through praising His Name and worshipping Him.

David was from the tribe of Judah and he established the Tabernacle of David which had ongoing praise--24 hours a day. Jesus' genealogy is traced back to the same as David's, the tribe of Judah which holds the ruling scepter. Since we are engrafted into the lineage of Jesus, this must be our calling also.

It's All About the Kingdom

At the entrance of every kingdom, there is some type of gate. A gate provides an entrance, but also a method of keeping others out. It opens up to those who are to be included in the city and then closes to intruders and enemies.

One of the most famous stories of a gatekeeper was Mordecai who sat at the king's gate. This particular gate was the door to the court and government of the city. In all actuality, Mordecai guarded the courts of the king. What an awesome position for a believer to have and yet, an incredible responsibility. Imagine an intercessor stationed at the door of the court system and having to spiritually "watch" over that gate. It is not known if he was given this position of honor before or after Esther came to the throne, but we do know that his position at the king's gate empowered him to "checkmate" Haman, an Amalekite and enemy of the Jews.

While on watch at his gate, Mordecai discovered a plot to kill the king. After disclosing the plan of assassination to Queen Esther, he was later honored by the King Ahasuerus. A quick study of Mordecai at the "king's gate" will empower us during our transition into 2008.

"In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hands on the king Ahasuerus. And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecai's name. And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king." Esther 2:21-23

Gatekeepers and gate watchers, hear me! The enemy is seeking to seduce you away from your gate assignments! Mordecai had enemies who sought to kill him--just as we have devils today who seek to destroy us because we are watching over the "King's business!" One of Mordecai's enemies was named "Bigthan" which means "in the winepress" and the other's name was "Teresh" which means "strictness." When I think of my enemies (as in demonic spirits) today, I am reminded of how difficult it is to stand at the gate of "doing the King's business" when God has me in the winepress.

I also believe that there are demons that are on assignment to "press and pressure" us when God has us in His divine time of "the squeeze." The "divine squeeze" is when all that is not of God is squeezed out. If not careful, evil messengers come at that vulnerable time and lie to us; thus, an enemy waits to seduce us from our vows to God. Then, there are those demons of "strictness" that lie in wait to deliver evil messages! You have heard them also; I'm sure of it. They are messages of "legalism, performance and spiritual perfectionism." These evil messengers also come at a time when God is doing a deep work in our hearts.

Aren't you glad that God has determined to always deliver us from our enemies? Just as He destroyed Mordecai's evil messengers (actually had them hung on a tree), He will do the same for us since He is no respecter of persons.

At the King's Gate--We Can Gain Influence

Today, in order to shift our own personal government, we will have to realize that we are in the winepress. God is extracting new wine and applying strict pressure. New boundaries in God are becoming rediscovered, and there is "strictness," a straight path that we are to follow. The enemy distorts God's expectations for us. By this, I'm referring to Jesus' example of encouraging us to go through the straight gate.

"Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat." Matthew 7:13

So, spiritually there is a straight path that can be referred to as a "strict" lifestyle, yet still not "legalism." Relationship with God is what we are to seek--not religion. Religion binds us with rules and laws. When we are seeking religion, we obey laws rather than obeying instruction based on relationship.

What is happening within our court systems is on our watch. We must become a disciplined army, strictly becoming obedient--yet not legalistic. Satan attempts to twist the truth concerning the winepress. A winepress is used during harvest. It is a time of rejoicing when wine and harvest have come. Satan will distort all that is good and make it appear hard and ugly.

Now back to our story. Mordecai called attention to these two chamberlains who sought to murder the king and he sounded the alarm. As a prophetic people, we must sound the alarm and alert others to Satan's position at the king's gate. Satan's plan is to assassinate and dilute the Truth of God and cause us to fear freedom in Christ. Many would rather be bound up with legalism than be free in Christ because it appears easier to follow "rules and strict guidelines." Mordecai was later rewarded for protecting the king. If we also remain at our gates, our assigned positions, we will be rewarded in God's timing.

Positioning for Shifting Government

Unless we are positioned properly, we will not experience the shifting which needs to occur in our lives. If we are at the right place at the right time, then certain exposure can occur to "uncover" the plans of the enemy so that we can overpower him in the Spirit.

After Mordecai exposed his enemies at the king's gate, he later discovered another plot of destruction. This time it was a plot hatched by the evil workings of one named Haman. Haman had manipulated the king into destroying the Jews and was placed in authority over Mordecai. Haman would parade himself through the streets of the city and expected others to bow in respect. Mordecai had determined to only bow to God. This act was considered humiliating by Haman, so he vindictively plotted to destroy not only Mordecai, but all of the Jews.

When Mordecai found out about the plan, he dressed himself in sackcloth and ashes and went throughout the city. He went as far as the king's gate while still dressed in sackcloth and ashes. History records the fact that it was illegal to be at the king's gate without having on the proper garments. In other words, Mordecai committed a crime, so to speak, for approaching that gate without the proper uniform. However, still knowing it was illegal to be at the king's gate dressed in this manner, Mordecai seemed to make a beeline toward the king's gate to make a statement. Mordecai, even before Esther's act of self-sacrifice, first laid down his life to shift the government and nullify the death assignment.

When Esther heard Mordecai was dressed this way, she sent a change of clothes. Esther knew it could mean certain death if Mordecai was found to have assumed this position and was not dressed properly. Mordecai refused to change clothing and instead, sent word to the queen concerning the evil plans of Haman to destroy all of the Jews. His refusal to take off his sackcloth was a radical statement which got Esther's immediate attention.

Mordecai reminded Esther of her own blood heritage and reminded her that it was possible that God brought her to the kingdom "for such a time as this" to shift government and issue new decrees. As a result of Mordecai's position at the king's gate, his refusal to change garments and his intercession there, Esther chose a fast and became determined to approach the king on behalf of all of the Jews.

Laying Down Our Lives at the Gate in 2008

Wow! Talk about shifting government at the gates! We give a lot of credit to Esther who laid down her life to approach the king. But what about Mordecai? He also laid down his life at the gate. When Haman would ride by on his horse, Mordecai was expected to "bow down" to him, but Mordecai refused, thus placing his life on the line. We also must refuse to bow to any evil plan of the enemy and if necessary, position ourselves at the gates in sackcloth and ashes, remain at our assigned gates and continue to watch.

The Year of "All Things" in 2008

As we go through the new gates in 2008, let's remember that "all things are possible" to those who believe in His Word. I heard the Lord say to me that 2008 was a year of "all things." I encourage us to do a study on those words and war over our promises. I will list a few for us to "stand on" and "arise" in spiritual fortitude as He leads us to a certain place and a certain gate. Do not listen to the evil messengers who would attempt to seduce you from achieving your destiny.

I have listed a few promises concerning "all things." Stand on these prophetic promises and go through your gate in 2008!

1. All things are possible in 2008! "But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible." Matthew 19:26
2. All things will be restored! "And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things." Matthew 17:11
3. All prayers are answered. "And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive." Matthew 21:22
4. We are to observe all things Jesus has taught us! "And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto Me in Heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen." Matthew 28:18-2
5. Do not have fear at your gate! You are empowered to "bear, believe, hope and endure" at the gate in 2008! "Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things." 1 Corinthians 13:6-7
6. The number "8" means "new beginnings." 2008 is the year that all things become new! "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." 2 Corinthians 5:17
7. The enemy is under your feet at your gate of enlargement. Go through the gate in 2008! "And hath put all things under His feet, and gave Him to be the Head over all things to the Church." Ephesians 1:22
8. The Spirit of God will reveal "the deep things" to you in 2008. "But God hath revealed them unto us by His Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God." 1 Corinthians 2:10

Let's determine to not simply go through the gate in 2008, but also to be properly positioned in 2008. Go for it! All things are possible!

Sandie Freed, Zion Ministries, Email: zionministries1@sbcglobal.net

This Prophetic Word reveals that the Lord's Government was coming in 2008. He established it in October 2009. But, it was declared in 2008. When the Lord told the people to receive His Words because the Vision of the Evening and the Morning was true, it confirms that the Government of the Lord is in place. I have told many people that in early August 2008 that the leaders of the nations, at the Beijing Olympics, all secretly signed the Treaty establishing officially the New World Order. In the first week of January 2009 I found out that they had put all things under the joint signature of three nations - the USA, Russia and China, until the One World Order is physically established. All activities were under the three Attorney Generals of the One World Order - the AG at Bank of International Settlements, the AG of the World Court, and the AG of the World Health Organization. Over these sets the President of the Club of Rome, Prince Philip of Belgium. And over all these sets the 13 families and their working entity, the Crowne Trust. This makes known that the Lord's Prophetic Word is correct, for His first action of the Father was to cause Gog and those with her (The 13 Families and their New World Order) to actually put into Word and Paper, their agreement to come forth as One to take over the world. This is the manifestation of the hooks in the jaws of Gog and those who follow.

RICK JOYNER:

"THE JUDGE IS COMING. We Must Be Devoted to Justice--First Toward God, then Toward One Another"

Intro by Steve Shultz:

Many of you know that we are known at the ElijahList for specializing in grace and mercy. But it is also true that God is teaching me to fight this year like never before and to examine myself like never before. So we remain BOTH in "grace" and in the "fight." Beyond that, we must trust God--that HE KNOWS ALL THINGS. So He knows when and how we are to examine ourselves, fight and rest, and at the same time--remain in His Peace. It's all true at the same time and for each of us, it looks a bit different. This word by Rick Joyner is perhaps harder than some words we post--but it's also true.

Remember that the prophets get a piece of the puzzle. Some see the grace side, some the justice, and some a little of this and a little of that. It's up to you and I to put it all together and then ask God where we are in His plan.

While putting this word together, my editor received this revelation from the Lord: "In 2008, the laws of Heaven will be executed on the earth. There are written laws in Heaven that have been saved for specific windows of time to be executed. He is the King of justice and the King is executing His order and His justice. It has been ordained! Wherever atrocities have been committed and darkness has prevailed, God will infiltrate with light and with the law of order of the high government of Heaven. His law doesn't cease. He is a just Judge Who is executing His orders upon the earth! God's divine order and high government rule and reign will be the major mark of 2008."

RICK JOYNER:

"No one likes to prophesy troubles, but for those who can see and prepare for them, they are the ones who will escape the consequences of them."

There is a hope that will never disappoint--the hope in the Lord. He will never leave us and He will never fail us. Christianity has been given the greatest hope the world has ever heard--Jesus is going to return to rule over the earth. He will establish His Throne upon righteousness and justice. Not only will everyone be treated fairly, but He is going to restore the original paradise that the earth was intended to be. The lion will lay down with the lamb; children will be able to play with cobras; and there will be no more mourning, dying, crying, or pain in all the earth.

There is no utopian hope or hope given in any other religion that comes even close to matching what we have been given. It is true, and will surely come to pass, just as surely as the Word of the Lord is true and always comes to pass. As Psalm 96:10-13 states:

"Say among the nations, 'The Lord reigns; indeed, the world is firmly established, it will not be moved; He will judge the peoples with equity.' Let the Heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; let the sea roar, and all it contains; let the field exult, and all that is in it. Then all the trees of the forest will sing for joy before the Lord, for He is coming; for He is coming to judge the earth. He will judge the world in righteousness and the peoples in His faithfulness."

Not many people are rejoicing like this at the prospect of the Lord coming back to judge the earth, but that is because of their misunderstanding of His judgments. We tend to think of them as condemnation, but they are correction--because He loves us. His judgments are to be desired so much that the whole earth, right down to the trees and plants, are going to rejoice when He comes to judge the earth.

This great rejoicing is not just because He is going to get rid of the wicked, but His judgments are coming to save the wicked too. This is not to imply that all of the wicked will be saved, but His judgments will at least give them a chance.

One might look at the troubles in the world and say that we are already in the greatest time of trouble the world has ever known. This is understandable, but we are not quite there yet. There are even more serious troubles coming. However, these are not because He has rejected us, but because He loves us. He is not actually doing these things to us, but we are doing them to ourselves, and He is allowing these troubles until we get the most important message of all--we cannot exist long in the creation without obeying the Creator. All of the troubles coming upon the world are basically the result of mankind trying to run this world without God. The troubles are simply mankind reaping what he has sown. Even so, as we are told in I Corinthians 11:31-32:

"For if we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged. But when we are judged, we are chastened by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world."

If we judge ourselves, He will not have to do it. That is the easy way. We can fall on the rock and be broken, or it will fall on us and grind us into powder! So let's humble ourselves and repent so that He will not have to discipline us.

Hurricane Katrina was discipline from the Lord, intended to help wake up America and get us to turn to Him. So are the earthquakes, fires, drought, floods, and all of the other natural disasters. God is not doing them to us, but they are the result of the earth being out of whack because her king is man, which God gave to the earth to rule over it, righteously.

More troubles are coming, not only to America but to the world, unless we repent. Possibly the most devastating disaster in the history of America could be creeping up on us through some of the most beautiful weather conditions imaginable. The South has enjoyed its most beautiful autumn weather in memory--which is the problem! The glorious sunny days, with near perfect temperatures, are veiling what is potentially the worst disaster to ever hit our nation--a whole region of the country is fast running out of water. Without rain, major cities and a multitude of small towns will soon have to be abandoned, displacing millions of people. It seems that the warning of I Thessalonians 5:3 is especially appropriate for this:

"While they are saying, 'Peace and safety!' then destruction will come upon them suddenly like birth pangs upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape."

Can this be avoided? Yes, as we are told in II Chronicles 7:13-14:

"If I shut up the Heavens so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among My people, and My people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray, and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from Heaven, will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

The Word of God is very clear that droughts are a curse. Everywhere in Scripture, except for the flood, rain is a blessing from the Lord. If God's people, not the heathen, will turn from their wicked ways, then the Lord will hear from Heaven and heal our land.

Right now the Church in America is like Jonah. We have a clear call and commission from the Lord, but we do not want to do it and are determined to go our own way. The storm is not coming upon the ship because of the heathen, they are only doing what they know to do; the storm is coming to wake up the prophet. The heathen actually had to wake up Jonah and tell him to call on his God, and we will soon see the heathen in America begin to beseech the Church to start calling on God because of the storms.

Just as in the end of Jonah's story when some of the worst heathen in his time turned to the Lord and repented, when the Church wakes up and preaches what we have been given to preach, the same is going to happen.

The drought in the South is similar to other potentially devastating problems that are all creeping up on us in conditions that seem as remote as they could be from a disaster. The weather is perfect; the sun is out, but the land is dying of thirst! The other conditions are creeping up likewise, unobserved except by a few. There seems to be a veritable "perfect storm," where a number of conditions all come together at the same time to produce the most devastating storm of all--each one multiplying the effects of the others.

If you are tempted to lay this aside now, thinking that you just do not want to read this type of thing, I understand, but I encourage you to read on because it could save your life. No one likes to prophesy troubles, but for those who can see and prepare for them, they are the ones who will escape the consequences of them. You may call them "negative prophecies," but by not seeing them, we could be the ones who are crying "peace and safety" just before the destruction comes. The Scriptures themselves make it clear that these things will be coming upon the world, and if you cannot see them, then you are living in a large degree of delusion. Many Christians are in this delusion, and when living in such darkness, even a little bit of light can be blinding. I implore you to please read on, even if it is hard for you.

Seeing the Signs of the Times

The Lord chided the Pharisees and Sadducees for knowing how to discern the weather but not knowing the signs of the times (see Matthew 16:3). Who could have seen such a creeping disaster as this drought in the South when the weather was so beautiful and peaceful? It is very difficult in these conditions to even think of hardship, much less such a widespread disaster as this drought could become. At this writing, some towns have their water turned on for just three hours a day. Note that I said water is turned on three hours a day, not off. This is the last resort to no water being available from public sources, and probable evacuation of everyone who does not have their own source of water, such as a well. However, in many cases, those who do have wells have already had to evacuate because their wells have run dry.

The interesting way that this drought crept up on the South was because of the recent devastating hurricanes, and the predictions of increasingly violent ones to come because of global warming. Naturally Christians, especially along the coast, prayed for protection from any more of those super storms, and the Lord seems to have answered those prayers. However, even though storms can be devastating, hurricanes and tropical storms are a main source for replenishing the water tables and reservoirs in the South. Because the storms did not come, we may have been rejoicing, but few understood that this posed a potentially worse disaster--the lack of fresh water for much of the South.

Things are becoming very difficult in the South in regard to fresh water. This is for our preparation, and we do need to prepare for it. Consider Revelation 8:10-11 concerning water:

"And the third angel sounded, and a great star fell from Heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of waters; and the name of the star is called Wormwood; and a third of the waters became wormwood; and many men died from the waters, because they were made bitter."

I personally believe this comes in the form of terrorist attacks on our water supplies. Since this is a Biblical prophecy, is there any way that we can be protected from this? Yes. Whole regions, and maybe even whole nations, can be protected. Even though we may have a high regard for our FBI, CIA, and other intelligence agencies, they will not be able to stop these attacks alone. Turning to the Lord can break the drought, and it can stop many other potential disasters. He will be gracious and help those who seek Him and obey Him.

What Is Wormwood?

The attack on the water supplies in Revelation 8 is called "Wormwood" for a reason. In Amos 6:12 it says, "you have turned justice into poison, and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood." The greatest injustice of all was the Cross. The One who was perfect in all of His ways, who did nothing but good, was tortured and crucified by the very ones He had made. This was the ultimate rejection of God by mankind. The ultimate injustice is for those who are made to reject their Maker. Turning from God in any manner is the ultimate injustice and will ultimately become wormwood for those who do it. The "great time of trouble" that we are told the end of this age will be is simply the result of mankind rejecting the Creator.

Likewise, righteousness, or the right way, is to turn to God. It is seeking to do His will instead of our own. Most of the injustices that men seek to address are injustices between men, but we will never have true justice if it is not built upon the ultimate justice of men giving to God what is due Him.

Because God is love, and He truly loves all men and desires for them to be saved, it does hurt Him when even one turns from Him. It grieves Him deeply when a whole nation turns from Him, especially one that has been so devoted to Him, like the United States. Even so, He is not smiting us out of His hurt and rejection, but to turn us back so that we will not have to reap the fruit of our own sin. The fruit of our rebellion against God is to have the creation rebel against us, as is indicated in Romans 8:19-21:

"For the anxious longing of the creation waits eagerly for the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will, but because of Him who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself also will be set free from its slavery to corruption into the freedom of the glory of the children of God."

As we are told in Amos, the fruit of righteousness can be turned into wormwood by injustice, and if we are going to be free of the plague of wormwood we must be devoted to justice, first toward God, then toward one another. It is justice that when we rebel against God, the creation that He placed us over will rebel against us.

So is the drought in the South the result of the South turning from God? Yes, but it is also evidence that He loves the South enough to discipline us. A drought in the Southwest is natural since it is mostly desert, but a drought in the Southeast is unnatural. The drought is a wake-up call.

Don't Worry, Be Happy!

In spite of all of the hope we have from the Word of God, many come close to having a nervous breakdown if they hear about anything bad coming. We must grow up. If we respond rightly, we can change our destiny. All we have to do is turn from our wicked ways and turn to the Lord. Then He will send rain and heal our land.

In Biblical symbolism, rain often speaks of teaching. This is why Moses said in Deuteronomy 32:2, "Let my teaching drop as the rain." The land is lacking physical rain because it is also lacking spiritual rain, the teachings of the Lord. The teachings of the Church right now are so weak, studies have shown that 75 percent of our children will turn from the faith within one year of leaving home. Studies have indicated that among Southern Baptists, considered to be one of the strongest evangelical denominations, this number may be as high as 94 percent. Even the most optimistic have to admit that something is very wrong.

Do our children hear one thing at Church, and then see something else at home? How can our children believe us if the rate of divorce among evangelical Christians is higher than it is among the heathen? How can they believe when there is no longer a distinguishable difference in the basic integrity and honesty between Christians and the heathen?

The Lord will help us. He is letting certain conditions become serious to get our attention. Let us always keep in mind the exhortation of Hebrews 12:5-7: "'My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor faint when you are reprov'd by Him; for those whom the Lord loves He disciplines, and He scourges every son whom He receives.' It is for discipline that you endure; God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline?"

The discipline that our nation and many others have been going through is not because the Lord has rejected us, but because He loves us. Those who follow Him will be ready for what is coming, so that they will be able to stand when others are falling.

Get Ready!

Remember Y2K? Most want to forget about it and for good reason--many Christians and many of my prophetic friends predicted something close to the end of the world and nothing happened. For a while, I was the only one who stated that Y2K was not going to be the disaster that everyone was predicting. It has always been interesting to me that I was persecuted more for being right about this than I think I ever have for being wrong about something. I was also right about the rest that I said then--that even though the preparations for Y2K would not be needed for Y2K, but for other things that were coming, learn the lessons, and hang on to that stuff you set aside.

Remember the bird flu? Many think that it has just gone away, but the opposite is true. It is moving relentlessly toward the worldwide pandemic that has been predicted. Governments have been wary of saying too much too soon because of the malaise that tends to come if you get ready for something and then it does not happen for awhile. They are trying to time their warnings right, which is the right thing to do. However, when the warning goes out, there may not be enough time for all to get ready.

It is also true that Christians do have the spiritual authority to stop this plague for every place that they have taken their spiritual authority. However, we only have true spiritual authority to the degree that we are obeying the King and abiding in Him, and not many Christians have been doing too good at that. Secular scientists have said that the coming Avian flu pandemic looks like the Biblical plague in the Book of Revelation where a third of mankind dies. If it is that plague in the Bible, we will not be able to stop it, but we do not have to die or have our children die in it. If God's people will turn from their wicked ways and turn to the Lord, we can stop this plague from coming near our houses, and possibly even protect our heathen neighbors as well, which will be to their spiritual as well as their physical salvation.

Hurry Up and Wait!

There are practical things we can do to prepare for the times, but first let's look at why we are going through so many seemingly contradictory conditions.

When going through boot camp or infantry training, we were constantly given orders and then seemingly contradictory ones right after them. This was to teach us to obey without question, because our lives and the lives of our units often depended on instant obedience. The more serious the conditions, the less time those in charge would have to explain orders. We have been going through similar training also, and it is intended to save lives.

After the South was clobbered by the mega storms, we prepared for storms and a drought came. Not many of the items we had set aside for storms are very useful in a drought, but some of them are. It would also be a mistake to forget anything we learned from our hurricane relief work or the drought.

Likewise, on the West Coast we need to learn every lesson we can from the fires and the mudslides. Mudslides may seem like the opposite problem of fires, but they are actually the result of fires. Fires strip the land of vegetation that holds the ground in place when the rains come. If that vegetation is gone, there will be a serious threat of mudslides after a fire. These are not unassociated problems.

The Greatest Harvest?

One of the greatest mission fields of the future is going to be disaster relief. The Church was magnificent the way it responded to the Hurricane Katrina disaster, and everyone, including the federal government and the secular media, took note of how much better the Church can respond and get things done in such a situation. We can do better than the government. We are here on this earth to be a light in darkness. After loving God, loving our neighbors is our main job description, and few things will be a greater demonstration of this than those who respond to help their neighbors in their worst times.

We claim to be filled with the Holy Spirit and the Holy Spirit is the Helper. The ministry of helps is not just cutting the grass or washing the dishes after Church suppers, but it is responding to those who are drowning and crying "HELP!" That ministry is a fundamental ministry that every Christian is called to, which is one reason why we were given the Helper to be in us.

Recently, we hosted a disaster response training course that included certification courses for CERT (Community Emergency Response Teams) and CISM (Crisis Intervention and Stress Management). Part of the training was how to set up a shelter during a disaster. This included gathering all of the necessary resources such as food, medical supplies, waste control, and bedding. Then all of the people in this class were separated into several teams, each of which was to plan the setting up of a shelter. This was good team building instruction, and everyone was having a pretty good time. Then one situation after another was thrown at these groups, which they had to determine how to deal with, and it became much more serious.

Some of the problems that these teams were required to find were quick answers for such things as having a man show up with a large knife, a person selling drugs, a sexual predator coming to the shelter, the power going off, toilets overflowing, families showing up that spoke a language no one knew, a blind person who had lost their seeing eye dog, a deaf person, and then they got more serious! What if the bird flu breaks out in the shelter? What would we do?

The point was to have everyone engaged, responsive, resourceful, and proactive in confronting each problem. Without such people in control of these shelters, they can quickly become disaster areas, just like it seemed to happen at the Superdome during Hurricane Katrina. There are many Christians who feel that because they have the Holy Spirit, He will give them everything they need to deal with any disaster. Faith in the Holy Spirit is both noble and crucial. However, many who have this attitude do not follow the Holy Spirit very well in their daily lives, and are unlikely to be able to do so in the chaos and clamor of a disaster. There is a Scripture for this--Psalm 32:6: "Therefore, let everyone who is godly pray to You in a time when You may be found; surely in a flood of great waters they will not reach him."

The point is: Do not wait until the storm hits to try and build your house on the Rock. It will be too late. That is why the Holy Spirit led us to do this very practical CERT and CISM training. The IFOC (International Fellowship of Chaplains) also does some very good training, which is intended to get Christians engaged in our communities and prepared to deal with almost anything our communities will face. I have been through the IFOC training and attended as many CERT and CISM sessions as I could, and feel every time that it is crucial not only for every pastor to have this training, but for every Christian as well.

Even so, the best-trained people are still going to need to hear and follow the Holy Spirit, and we are going to need miracles. Training and following the Holy Spirit are not mutually exclusive--they are essential. The trained will likely be the ones calm enough to hear the Holy Spirit. One of the biggest mistakes I think we (MorningStar) made during our Katrina relief operations was getting so caught up in the physical needs that many of the spiritual needs were neglected. We had many meet the Lord, many healed, and many helped spiritually, but not like they should have been. We are resolved to not let that happen again, and we are therefore very understanding of those who think too much preparation is being made for the natural man. However, having been in such a crisis a few times, I do not think we can get too prepared in the natural--we just need to esteem spiritual preparation and ministry much more than we have.

Much of the training for crisis intervention is how to bring order into a situation, but more of it is how to deal with situations where there is no order, which is where the Holy Spirit seems to be at His best. When He moved upon the earth in the beginning, it was in chaos, and look at the glorious creation He brought forth! It is going to be in the chaos of some of the things coming down that we are going to see the Holy Spirit do some of His most glorious work. It is not that we have to go through these--we get to!

Even with all of the devotion we are giving to this, we are well aware that there is a limit to what our training can do. Even so, we also have learned the hard way that the ones who come to help who have limited training may have the best of intentions, but they often just add to the burden of those who were trained and prepared. We need to get all of the training possible for our calling and trust the Lord. These are not mutually exclusive, but mutually inclusive.

So What Do We Do?

Every Christian should have between three and six months of food, water, and medicine on hand, all of the time. It should be rotated to be kept fresh and usable, but when the Avian flu pandemic hits, we can expect almost all transportation to be shut down very quickly. Most grocery stores only carry a three-day supply of food for their regular customers. This can be gone in hours with a run on the store. Get ready now. Stay ready. This could hit at any time and without much notice. It is not a matter of if it will come, but when.

Hopefully most Christians will have turned from their wicked ways and turned to the Lord, so that we will be able to stand and protect our families and our neighbors. If Moses could tell Aaron to run into the midst of the camp to stop the plague with a censer of incense, how much more should prayer and intercession, of which that incense was a type, be able to stop a plague? This is why we have "a better covenant;" we do not just have the types and shadows, but the reality of what they were types and shadows of.

Now, for all of the natural preparation you make, storing food, water, medicines, or other supplies, think about the corresponding spiritual supplies you should store. First, we should be storing as much as we can of His Word in our hearts, but in this pandemic, people will be told to stay home. Curfews will be enforced, probably with deadly force. Since there probably will not be television, and there may not be electricity in a lot of places to listen to our music, we will have a lot of time to read. After three months or more of isolation with our families and the Lord, we should have a vision of coming out of this as the strongest Christians on the planet, with the strongest families!

A three-month supply of resources will probably be more than adequate; however, it is likely our whole infrastructure will take some time to get back in gear. Therefore, I recommend having a six-month supply so that you can share with others who did not prepare. I also intend to have Bibles and other good Christian books to share with my neighbors.

I realize that in your nice, comfortable, warm homes where you are probably sitting while reading this Bulletin, it sounds far-fetched that something like this could happen. However, it has happened before and it will happen again. It may not come this year. I have been praying for years for more time for the Church to prepare, but there will be a time, and in the not too distant future, when it does come. Just think, if you prepare and it does not come, what have you lost? A little bit of time maybe. If it comes and you have not prepared, you could possibly lose your life and the lives of your loved ones.

I was right about Y2K, and I am right about this one. The natural disasters that seem to be hitting us week after week now are grace from the Lord to wake us up and get ready. The most important preparation of all is to turn to Him and away from our wicked ways. If we do this it will be much, much easier for us.

"But you, brethren, are not in darkness, that the day would overtake you like a thief; for you are all sons of light and sons of day. We are not of night nor of darkness; so then let us not sleep as others do, but let us be alert and sober. For those who sleep do their sleeping at night, and those who get drunk get drunk at night.

But since we are of the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet, the hope of salvation. For God has not destined us for wrath, but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ" (I Thessalonians 5:4-9).

"The DAY of the WARRIOR Has Come—
You Will TAKE BACK COVETED LAND and GIVE IT to the FATHER"

God says, "I see the prayers of your forefathers rise before Me like smoke. The bones of your brothers cry out to Me from the ground, and I declare to you a year of remembrance. Look closely at 2008--a year of anniversary and remembrance has come before you. I will reinstate you in places of authority and honor, and the prophecies of your forefathers shall resonate in this nation. All that has opposed Me shall now be swept away as those in darkness see a great Light."

"The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephtholim, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles; The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up..." Matthew 4:15-16

The Spirit of Crazy Horse

God says, "The warrior spirit is still intact, and I will teach your hands to war. You will tear down ancient strongholds that others have been unwilling and unable to destroy. You will stand in the gates of Washington D.C. with a message from Heaven. Those that have resisted you for 200 years will now declare, 'Blessed is he who comes in the Name of the Lord.' The self-fulfilling prophecy spoken over you years ago, 'I will fight no more forever' will now be reversed, and the will to fight the good fight of faith will be restored."

You will take back coveted land and place it at the feet of your Father. For I tell you this day I hear the prayers of Crazy Horse, Sitting Bull (mighty warriors) and Joseph--apostolic prophetic declarations that were made and are hanging in the balances of fulfillment. The day of the warrior has come.

I Will Resurrect Your Heart at Wounded Knee

God says, "A resurrection is coming at the places where the warrior has fallen. These memorial stones will now be remembered from the highest places of government in the land. The powers that have incarcerated your destiny will now be broken releasing the light of a new beginning in your inherent land. The caricature of history shall be rewritten and the faces of your leaders will be seen in the light of truth. I will place memorial stones in the house of your President, for those that favor you will be favored by Me. Many will see it and be glad."

"For the KNEE is a place of prayer and devotion--now hear this word of wisdom: I will restore your place of intercession and prayer, and that which has wounded you and displaced you from your rightful position of prayer and authority for this nation shall no longer handicap you any more. The knee that was broken shall now be repaired," says the Lord, "and you shall stand in the gap once again."

Prophecy to the Wind, Brothers

God says, "The wind of the prophetic that has lifted you above the persecution will now lift you once again. The Spirit of Prophecy is your inheritance, and you will now find yourself at center stage. The curtains of bitterness and hate are now being rended, revealing a glorious light of My Word in you. You will stand on the mountains of this nation and declare a 'New Day.' The highest places are yours for the possession. As Moses on Mount Sinai, you will see a mighty deliverance as millions escape the valley of death into the fields of harvest." Your day of reckoning and recognition has come My brothers. Prophecy to the wind and cry out, "These dry bones will live! These dry bones will live!"

Reserved For Such A Time As This

First Nations will now be the first and not the last as the indictments against them are no more. A graduation from glory to glory is now in effect, and the fires of an awakening on your reservations are now kindled. For those in "reservation" understand now it was only a "dress rehearsal" reserved for an appointed time, and like Esther, the scepter of favor and authority will be granted.

Watch and see--even those who say, "Can these things be?" will now stand in the place as the officer did to Elisha as these words come to pass, "Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat thereof..." 2 Kings 7:2. The famine of hearing God's word in your land is over. Stand in that place now and proclaim and watch and see as the reaper is overtaken by the sower.

Dawning of a New Day

God says, "Those that have sat in darkness shall now rise in this dawning of a new day. A Bright and Morning Star shall be seen in 2008, leading them to the place of their destiny. The tomb of history shall now be opened, revealing the exploits that have even to this day remained hidden. The spirit of exploitation shall be banished from their borders, breaking the cycle of the curse that has found its way into this present generation. The temptation of wealth will not spoil the heart of the youth as they reach for higher ground."

"As Elijah prayed for rain, so shall you stand at the threshold of drought and dearth and release the Heavens. You shall call upon the Name of Yeshua and the day of famine shall end. For this is your inheritance and birth right, and in this hour you will see the heart of the father's return to their children," says the Lord. "Significant signs shall surely follow as a people embrace this day what I have declared."

"But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivers; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore. Who among you will give ear to this? Who will hearken and hear for the time to come?" Isaiah 42:22-23

Now this is a Prophetic Word from November 30, 2010. This is confirming that the Time of the Gifts for the Overcoming has come. It is up to us to know the Father's Times, believe Him, receive it, and to go forth.

Paul Keith Davis:

We Have Reached a "Fullness of Time" Juncture in Church History

Greetings friends, Wanda, Natalie and I are just returning from a very fruitful series of meetings in Detroit, Michigan; Seoul, South Korea; and Auckland, New Zealand. One thing we received from each of these meetings is the clear evidence of a remnant company of people who have positioned themselves for spiritual breakthrough and a season of fruitfulness.

There is a tremendous stirring that is taking place among various leadership who have been prepared for this season and also a remnant company of God's people who will begin to restore "desolate heritages." According to Haggai 1:14:

"The Lord stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of the Lord of hosts, their God."

This Scripture is a prophetic portrait of a season of supernatural restoration and the fulfillment of profound promises following Israel's Babylonian captivity. Although the invitation was given to the masses, only a core remnant responded with faithfulness and determination. Daniel's willingness to contend for the fulfillment of Jeremiah's prophecy unleashed a spiritual visitation that provided a spiritual stirring which provoked the hearts of Zerubbabel, Joshua and the remnant of God's people.

The word used for stirring in this context is "ur" meaning to awaken, arouse or provoke to excitement; to be stirred up. In contrast to sleep, the idea is the opening of the eyes. This is a picture of what the Lord is doing today. Ezra confirmed this reality in his prophecies, saying:

"Then the heads of fathers' households of Judah and Benjamin and the priests and the Levites arose, even everyone whose spirit God had stirred to go up and rebuild the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem" (Ezra 1:5).

On this past Day of Atonement, the Holy Spirit began to talk to us about promises we have held in our hearts for a number of years. These promises dealt with us personally and corporately as a generation. On that very day, Bob Jones phoned to share with us revelation he received on Atonement. Part of that dealt with the delay that we have experienced over the course of the last several years. In his revelations he was told that the 2008 Shepherd's Rod that we jointly prepared will have much application in the season ahead. In fact, he said there has been a two-year delay in the initiation of these promises because of spiritual, political and economic circumstances we have endured.

Even so, I believe there is a remnant company prepared to move forward with a measure of stewardship of spiritual promises that will begin to provoke our generation to its place in destiny. We are seeing tokens of that in Mobile, Alabama, and other regions experiencing spiritual awakening.

These are indeed the most profound days in Church history. The Lord will display His victory and He will have His harvest. Our cry should be that of Abraham in Genesis 18:3, saying, "My Lord, if now I have found favor in Your sight, please do not pass Your servant by."

The following will include excerpts from the 2008 Shepherd's Rod. We pray the Lord's richest blessings upon you during this season of transition and breakthrough.

Kindest regards and blessings, Paul Keith & Wanda and the WhiteDove team

Introduction

Much of the preparatory work that has been taking place within many of God's people will be brought to a place of fullness or completion over this next season in preparation for "crossing over" into the land of fulfilled promises. Nevertheless, although a grooming mode will continue, these days will also be marked with divine visitation and personal impartation.

The Holy Spirit's refining work will continue until the Lord's return. However, there are crossroads in human history marked by divine visitation and spiritual outpouring that generates a harvest of souls and greater measures of truth and understanding in God's Word. This is accomplished through individuals who have yielded themselves to God and become trustworthy stewards of His revelation and power.

We have come to such a crossroad that presently stands before us. We must take every opportunity to allow the Holy Spirit to sift from our soul every potential hindrance and encumbrance. Like David we cry:

"Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my anxieties; and see if there is any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting" (Psalm 139:23-24).

Breakthrough with the Young

The initial revelations given for this year's Day of Atonement strategy started with a vision of young adults. Clearly, everything that God is doing today involves the entirety of His Church. Every age group, ethnic community, and demographic is called to their post of duty in this, perhaps the most crucial hour in Church history. Nevertheless, the revelatory insights once again emphasized God's heart to mobilize an army of young people with radical faith and passion.

This is also evidenced by the emphasis given to this age group by our adversary in his attempt to divert and corrupt this young generation. There is presently a battle raging for our children. We must be mobilized to meet this challenge and call for the truest form of Christianity that is filled with both Spirit and power. That is the only answer we can offer to win this generation. As the prophet Joel predicted:

"Then you shall know that I am in the midst of Israel: I am the LORD your God and there is no other. My people shall never be put to shame. And it shall come to pass afterward that I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions" (Joel 2:27-28).

Again, the Lord's desire to emphasize the struggle for the young stresses its importance. The Lord intends to impart within us a form of faith that is saturated with joy unspeakable and full of glory. First Peter 1:7-8 declares:

"That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: Whom having not seen, ye love; in Whom, though now ye see Him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory."

Throughout Church history there have been crossroads where children and young adults were used to introduce an entire generation to the manifestation of God's Spirit. One of the most well-known in our generation is the outpouring that took place under the leadership of H. A. Baker as recorded in his book, "Visions Beyond the Veil."

This fascinating story highlights a group of young people visited by the Lord's Spirit who experienced visions and revelations of the Lord that radically transformed them and their community. There have been other examples of this reality, but this one seems to capture our attention and imagination as a prophetic model of God's intent to pour His Spirit out upon all flesh.

Part of the introduction of "Vision Beyond the Veil" states:

"Visions?...In the 20th century? You might dismiss the visions of other people with a shrug. But somehow, when it's a child, it makes you stop and think. Only in this case, it was not just one child - but many.

"Children who had been street beggars before they arrived at the Adullam Rescue Mission asked God to reveal Himself to them. This book records the result of the faithful expectation of these young orphans. Unlearned and unschooled, they experienced revelations and visions of Heaven surprisingly accurate to the Biblical account. A truly remarkable book about the truly remarkable God!

"The Visitation

"The morning prayer meeting was lasting longer than usual. The older children left the room one by one to begin their studies in the school-room, while a few of the smaller boys remained on their knees, deep in prayer. The Lord was near; we all felt the presence of the Holy Spirit among us. Some who had gone out came back into the room.

"Tears began to stream down the faces of all those present as they came under a strong conviction of sin - something we had been praying for a long time - and, with their arms in the air, they cried to the Lord for forgiveness. One person after another fell down under the mighty power of the Holy Spirit until more than twenty were lying flat on the floor. When I saw that the Lord was doing a really unusual thing among us, I slipped over to the school-room and told the boys that if they felt led to come and pray they might be excused from their school work.

"In a short while the Chinese teacher was left sitting alone by the table. All his pupils had returned to the prayer room, and were now enthusiastically praying and praising the Lord. When the teacher realized there was nothing for him to do, he decided to go home. I had not invited him to come in with the children for, although he had been with us a long time, he did not seem at all interested in spiritual things. He went a short distance from the house but then turned back. When he entered the prayer room no one noticed him; everyone was too busy having their own dealings with the Lord. He went to a far corner of the room, and, for the first time in his life, knelt down and tried to pray.

"The meeting went on hour after hour with the children showing no desire to leave. I had nothing to do or say; the Lord seemed in complete control; I just tried to keep out of His way.

"As the children saw, in their visions, the awfulness of Hell, the despair of those who were lost, and the indescribable evil of the devil and his angels, their agonized crying was beyond anything I had ever experienced before. It was all incredibly real to them. In their visions many saw themselves in chains being dragged to the very edge of Hell, which became an awful and terrible reality. As they realized they were sinners in the grip of the devil, who ought to be punished, they were terrified. But the grace of the Lord Jesus to bring freedom was just as real. The joy, laughter and peace they received and the knowledge of what they had been saved from was an experience which I am sure will never leave them...

"In the first few days no one paid much attention to eating or sleeping. Whenever the young people began to pray the power of God would come, causing many to fall to the floor. It was impossible to have meals at regular hours without interfering with the work of the Holy Spirit. As the power of God lifted from them, various ones would go out for a time to rest or eat something, and then they would return to the prayer room soon to be under the power of the Holy Spirit again.

"One thing is certain. All that was demanded of us missionaries during this move of the Holy Spirit was that we keep out of the way and did not interfere with His wonderful work. Our part was to open up our own hearts so that we too might have a deeper experience of the Heavenly blessings that were being showered upon us.

"From the very beginning our experience of the Holy Spirit at this time - the manifestations, the visions and revelations - was so beyond our own experience and knowledge that my wife and I said to one another that the only resource we had was to believe that God was bigger than the devil. We trusted in God's promise:

"'Which of you fathers, if your son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead? Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? If you then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in Heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!' (Luke 11:11-13)."

There is an all out assault by the army of darkness against the young of this generation. Much of this war is fought in the realm of contemporary media. Nevertheless, where evil is abundant, grace will much more abound (Romans 5:20). Light will always overcome darkness!

Our present call as a Body of Believers is to become the light of this world and illuminated with present revelation. Daniel foresaw this generation and prophesied:

"Those who have insight will shine brightly like the brightness of the expanse of Heaven, and those who lead the many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever" (Daniel 12:3).

Joy Unspeakable and Full of Glory

In Bob's vision of this reality, the young people were very joyous as they were having personal encounters with the Lord. In the experience the youth were shouting, "Joy unspeakable and full of glory," emphasizing this Scripture in 1 Peter 1 and God's intent to manifest this aspect of His plan during this next spiritual season.

In its truest form, joy is a sense of well-being despite circumstances. Those that maintain this position in their hearts, and recognize God's sovereignty, will begin to experience measures of glory in the coming season.

College campuses will continue to be visited by God's Spirit to awaken this young generation to the reality of the true Christian life. Many of tomorrow's champions will be identified in this environment and prepared to be used by the Holy Spirit, even in their youth. This will be part of the restoration of our inheritance that has become desolate. Isaiah prophesied:

"In a favorable time I have answered you, and in a day of salvation I have helped you; and I will keep you and give you for a covenant of the people, to restore the land, to make them inherit the desolate heritages; saying to those who are bound, 'Go forth,' to those who are in darkness, 'Show yourselves.' Along the roads they will feed, and their pasture will be on all bare heights" (Isaiah 49:8-9).

Many of America's universities were initially formed as institutions to prepare people to carry the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the nations of the earth. This mandate will be recaptured with modern-day missionaries being commissioned and empowered with end-time anointing. These individuals will not merely carry good theological understanding but an experiential encounter that has transformed them.

The youth of this generation are going to discover exuberance and joy in God for which the spirit of this world has no substitute. They will discover that the greatest journey of all is to walk with the Lord Jesus and know Him intimately. Drugs, alcohol and other addictions will then lose their captivation among this group.

Panel of Seven Judges

The next vision highlighted a panel of seven God-ordained "judges" commissioned to begin judging prophecies to determine which are from the Lord and which are not. He saw six men and one woman serving in this capacity. Presently, there is a flood of prophetic insight being distributed to the Church. Many of the things prophesied are from the Holy Spirit while others are born in the mind and imagination of people, while yet others may be a mixture of both.

During Biblical times, the sounding of a trumpet was crucial. Their lives depended upon the clarity of the sound so that the people would know how to prepare themselves. There was a trumpet sound for war and another trumpet sound for a holy convocation. Our present call is for our trumpet to be clear, concise and accurate. This will begin to eliminate much of the confusion that now exists.

Our generation is desperate for a more sure word of prophecy. We must improve in this area. Thankfully, through these revelations, the Lord is emphasizing His desire to provide the spiritual insight we need to meet this challenge. In essence, the Lord desires to remove the leaven from our prophetic insight so that we see more clearly the path ahead and the necessary preparation to cooperate with Him.

During the prophetic ministry of Ezekiel there were many people prophesying false visions and utterances. The river had been polluted by the agendas of men. Even so, the Lord promised a time of restoration when gallant men and women would stand before God and say only what He is saying. Ezekiel recorded:

"Son of man, what is this proverb you people have concerning the land of Israel, saying, 'The days are long and every vision fails'? Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD, "I will make this proverb cease so that they will no longer use it as a proverb in Israel." But tell them, "The days draw near as well as the fulfillment of every vision.

"For there will no longer be any false vision or flattering divination within the house of Israel. For I the LORD will speak, and whatever word I speak will be performed. It will no longer be delayed, for in your days, O rebellious house, I will speak the word and perform it," declares the Lord GOD." (Ezekiel 12:22-25).

The number seven is a number of completion and fullness. Seeing the seven "judges" does not necessarily imply that there will literally be seven people charged with this responsibility, although that is a possibility. Rather, we believe it is a commission being given to the Church and a complete release of grace to achieve it.

The entire Body of Christ worldwide will experience this measure of wisdom and understanding to discern His voice and be separated from others. The Lord promised:

"My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me; and I give eternal life to them, and they will never perish; and no one will snatch them out of My hand" (John 10:27-28).

The Spirit of revelation is fundamentally essential for the eradication of spiritual stupor that blinds our eyes and stops our ears from hearing clearly. Without God's illumination, we are doomed to repeating past mistakes and failures. Moses' generation missed their door of opportunity because they did not possess eyes to see, ears to hear and a heart to understand God's purpose (Deuteronomy 29:4).

The Living Word

Separating the clean from the unclean and the precious from the profane can only be achieved by the manifestation of the Living Word. Hebrews 4:12 states:

"For the Word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart."

These days will see the Lord returning as the Living Word to separate spirit from soul and judge the thoughts and intentions of men's hearts. Many of our prophetic utterances are determined by the sincerity of our hearts. We simply cannot allow selfish ambition or personal agendas to dictate the flow of prophetic insight.

The prophet Micaiah is a wonderful spiritual type of this ministry emerging today. This man of God lived during the days of Ahab and Jezebel. On one occasion Ahab invited righteous King Jehoshaphat to partner with him in war against Israel's enemies. Interestingly, Ahab's desire was to retake Ramoth-Gilead, a territory that rightfully belonged Israel. However, this fulfillment would not take place under his unrighteous leadership, but at an appointed time.

Jehoshaphat purposed to inquire of the Lord to determine God's will in this endeavor. Hence, Ahab paraded 400 of his prophets before the kings. Everyone prophesied the wishes of Ahab. Something in the heart of Jehoshaphat was not content with this perspective. He asked if there was yet one more who could contact Heaven and declare God's heart. Ahab said:

"There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD, but I hate him, because he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. He is Micaiah son of Imlah" (1 Kings 22:8).

There was one prophet willing to say just what God was saying, and his name was Micaiah. This courageous prophet withstood overwhelming pressure from the other prophetic camp in order to stand before Israel and Judah as a righteous prophetic voice. First Kings 22:13-14 records that:

"Then the messenger who went to summon Micaiah spoke to him saying, 'Behold now, the words of the prophets are uniformly favorable to the king. Please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak favorably.' But Micaiah said, 'As the LORD lives, what the LORD says to me, that I shall speak.'"

Micaiah related to Ahab and Jehoshaphat his vision of seeing a deceiving spirit being commissioned from God's throne to rest upon Ahab's prophets. It is important to understand that these voices were Hebrew prophets that were supposed to be trained and equipped to stand before Israel as God's spokesmen. But because of wrong motivations, God allowed a spirit of deception to prevail leading to Ahab's demise.

Micaiah went on to prophesy the failure of this mission and the ultimate downfall and death of Ahab. Clearly, this infuriated the king who vowed to reward Micaiah with incarceration, saying:

"Put this man in prison and feed him sparingly with bread and water until I return safely." Micaiah said, 'If you indeed return safely the LORD has not spoken by me'" (1 Kings 22:27-28).

The strength and fortitude of Micaiah is a prophetic model for the panel of "judges" that will bring separation in the coming days. All prophetic voices have the opportunity to allow this sifting and separation to take place within us so that our own voices would be pure and unadulterated.

The Number Seven

Seven seems to be the number with primary prophetic significance for this year. Seven is taken from a root word signifying completion or fullness. It is first used in Genesis 2:2 when God rested after the completion of His labors.

God rested on the seventh day because His work was entirely perfect and complete. Therefore, we can interpret this application to signify this year as a time of measurable completion of God's preparatory dealings within our lives before the next installment of His plan.

God's provision in and through the Lord Jesus is complete and perfect. The life that He demonstrated on earth and the power ministry that He conveyed is one that we can aspire to, but only through submission to the Holy Spirit. Seven is also a symbolic representation of the sevenfold Spirit of God that will rest upon the "sons of the Kingdom" (Matthew 13:38).

In Zechariah 4:6-7, 9-10 the prophet declared:

"Then he said to me, 'This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel saying, "Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit," says the LORD of hosts. "What are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become a plain; and he will bring forth the top stone with shouts of 'Grace, grace to it!'"...' The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house, and his hands will finish it. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. For who has despised the day of small things? But these seven will be glad when they see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel - these are the eyes of the LORD which range to and fro throughout the earth.'"

The Seven Spirits of God will rejoice when they see a righteous "plumb line" being demonstrated among God's people. That is the function of the seven judges who will begin to separate truth from the precepts of men. This work will begin to prepare the Bride of Christ without spot or wrinkle so that she can become one with the Bridegroom. This season of the Spirit will initiate this process in greater measure.

When a time of completion has arrived, then a day of new beginnings will be birthed. The Lord has "fullness of time" junctures in human history when His Spirit flourishes with fresh understanding of His nature and character. The results will always be a harvest of souls and greater influence in Heavenly places. This time of completion will launch us into such a time as that.

Someone once said that time was created so that everything would not happen at once. Clearly, Church history validates that we have been in a progressive recovery of lost heritage and the maturation of a Body of people to walk as "sons of the Kingdom." We also have a Biblical promise outlining God's ability to redeem lost time and do quickly what we perceive would take a long time.

After 40 years, Israel's wandering came to a completion and a new beginning surfaced. Likewise, our generation saw in 1967 the long foretold restoration of Jerusalem into the hands of the Jewish people. That has also run a complete cycle marking another day of new beginnings both for Israel and the Church.

This reality also has significant implications with the political environment and our involvement in the war on terrorism. The Lord has made it emphatically clear that if His people will pray for our President and our armies that He will do something miraculous that will allow us as a nation to withdraw from Iraq in victory and honor, not in defeat and shame.

A Harvest of Prophets

In the next series of revelations, Bob saw a harvest of individuals coming from the black community, especially the young, who will immediately be thrust into an accelerated training and equipping mode to function as prophets to the nations. God has ordained for significant leadership to emerge from our black brothers and sisters with an emphasis on the revelatory gifting and prophetic worship.

Our counsel is to recognize this spiritual emphasis and cooperate with the Holy Spirit in its fulfillment. I have repeatedly heard the Lord say this season will generate a harvest of harvesters. There is a grace to win souls into the Kingdom during this new beginning with an equal accentuation on training and equipping.

Notes for Feb. 8, 2011, Teleconference Bible Study with Floyd E. Taylor

During March, 2007, while doing a conference in England, I received a wonderful confirmation of this truth through Surprise Sithole. Surprise is a black man from South Africa and works with Rolland and Heidi Baker and Iris Ministries. I wrote about this revelation in my book Angels That Gather. The following is an excerpt:

Harvesters Arise

"One final confirmation concerning this generation's promised harvest arrived only days before this book was scheduled to go to print. While in Dudley, England, to speak at a prophetic conference, I met Surprise Sithole, African director of Partners in Harvest. He helps oversee, with Rolland and Heidi Baker, over six thousand Churches birthed through Iris Ministries in Mozambique, Africa. Notable miracles the Lord performed through this man of God are on record. On my behalf the Lord used Surprise to offer the final affirmation that this is the season for a harvest of harvesters.

"In my session, I began to speak about the revelation of the present mandate to entreat the Lord of the Harvest to gather laborers into the barn to be trained and mentored through a season of accelerated equipping for the great harvest. When I shared this revelation, Surprise grew very excited and mentioned that this was the first time a revelation given to him three years before had been confirmed.

"He related to the group how in 2004 he had been in a service and found himself troubled by some of what had transpired. He immediately went to his hotel room and knelt on the floor to pray. When he did, he felt a sensation of ascending, similar to what one would experience in a very fast elevator.

"When he opened his eyes, he realized he was having a Heavenly experience. There before him stood the Ancient of Days with millions of people prostrate before Him in adoration and worship. The transition from the natural to the spiritual realm had shifted so suddenly he was uncertain what had transpired. The Ancient of Days assured him he was experiencing a divine revelation with a strategic purpose.

"Surprise then found himself holding Heavenly fruit. With this realization, he also saw Enoch and Elijah standing at a distance. His first inclination was to share this fruit with them. However, the Ancient of Days informed him that the fruit was not for them but for the people of the earth.

"The Ancient of Days counseled, 'Take this fruit and share it with your brethren in the earth, and tell the harvesters to arise.' Surprise was overwhelmed by that statement's magnitude. 'How?' he asked. The Lord answered, 'The gifts are coming.' Finally, Surprise asked one more question: 'When?' With that final question the millions who had been prostrate before the Lord stood to their feet and simultaneously shouted, 'NOW!'

"I was thrilled beyond description to hear Surprise share this testimony of his Heavenly experience. He heard directly from the Lord's lips the directive for the 'harvesters to arise.' This gave me the final confirmation of our entry into a season that will exhibit both the fruit of the Spirit and the power of God. The purpose of this impartation will be to gather a wave of harvest consisting primarily of harvesters to be used in the great harvest."

Embracing our Opportunity

"We have reached a "fullness of time" juncture in Church history. God's end-time plan is being catapulted in motion with a 'breakthrough' anointing. Naturally, this is not all He is doing, but certainly it is a vital part.

"The LORD has opened His armory and has brought forth the weapons of His indignation, for it is a work of the Lord GOD of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans."—Jeremiah 50:25

Now, think on those things and then think about the Words and the meanings of this "Hour" in these verses:

- Matthew 9:22 But Jesus turned around, and when He saw her He said, "Be of good cheer, daughter; your faith has made you well." And the woman was made well from that hour.
- Matthew 10:19 "But when they deliver you up, do not worry about how or what you should speak. For it will be given to you in that hour what you should speak:"
- Matthew 26:55 In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to take Me? I sat daily with you, teaching in the temple, and you did not seize Me."
- Mark 13:11 "But when they arrest you and deliver you up, do not worry beforehand, or premeditate what you will speak. But whatever is given you in that hour, speak that; for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit."
- Luke 10:21 "In that hour Jesus rejoiced in the Spirit and said, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and revealed them to babes. Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Your sight."
- John 19:27 Then He said to the disciple, "Behold your mother!" And from that hour that disciple took her to his own home."

Consider the timing of the Second Watch and the Third Watch. This should be uplifting.

- Luke 12:38 "And if he should come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

I would like to cover the way of the Lord's coming at this time to Judge and it is by His Words. Psalm 50 is important to remember in these days.

- Psalm 50:1-6 ¹The Mighty One, God the LORD, has spoken and called the earth from the rising of the sun to its going down. ²Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God will shine forth. ³Our God shall come, and shall not keep silent; a fire shall devour before Him, and it shall be very tempestuous all around Him. ⁴He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that He may judge His people: ⁵"Gather My saints together to Me, those who have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice." ⁶Let the heavens declare His righteousness, for God Himself is Judge. Selah
- Psalm 50:7-23 ⁷"Hear, O My people, and I will speak, O Israel, and I will testify against you; I am God, your God! ⁸I will not rebuke you for your sacrifices or your burnt offerings, which are continually before Me. ⁹I will not take a bull from your house, nor goats out of your folds. ¹⁰For every beast of the forest is Mine, and the cattle on a thousand hills. ¹¹I know all the birds of the mountains, and the wild beasts of the field are Mine. ¹²"If I were hungry, I would not tell you; for the world is Mine, and all its fullness. ¹³Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats? ¹⁴Offer to God thanksgiving, and pay your vows to the Most High. ¹⁵Call upon Me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you shall glorify Me." ¹⁶But to the wicked God says: "What right have you to declare My statutes, or take My covenant in your mouth, ¹⁷seeing you hate instruction and cast My Words behind you?" ¹⁸When you saw a thief, you consented with him, and have been a partaker with adulterers. ¹⁹You give your mouth to evil, and your tongue frames deceit. ²⁰You sit and speak against your brother; you slander your own mother's son. ²¹These things you have done, and I kept silent; you thought that I was altogether like you; but I will rebuke you, and set them in order before your eyes. ²²NOW CONSIDER THIS, YOU WHO FORGET GOD, LEST I TEAR YOU IN PIECES, AND THERE BE NONE TO DELIVER; (This is important when you consider His Warning of Matthew 24:20 and Mark 13:18). ²³Whoever offers praise glorifies Me; and to him who orders his conduct aright I will show the salvation of God."

The Heritage of the Righteous and the Calamity of the Wicked

Psalm 37:1-40 ¹Do not fret because of evildoers, nor be envious of the workers of iniquity. ²For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb. ³Trust in the LORD, and do Good; dwell in the land, and feed on His faithfulness. ⁴Delight yourself also in the LORD, and He shall give you the desires of your heart. ⁵Commit your way to the LORD, trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass. ⁶He shall bring forth your righteousness as the Light, and your justice as the noonday. ⁷Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for Him; do not fret because of him who prospers in his way, because of the man who brings wicked schemes to pass. ⁸Cease from anger, and forsake wrath; do not fret—it only causes harm. ⁹FOR EVILDOERS SHALL BE CUT OFF; BUT THOSE WHO WAIT ON THE LORD, THEY SHALL INHERIT THE EARTH. ¹⁰FOR YET A LITTLE WHILE AND THE WICKED SHALL BE NO MORE; INDEED, YOU WILL LOOK CAREFULLY FOR HIS PLACE, BUT IT SHALL BE NO MORE. ¹¹BUT THE MEEK SHALL INHERIT THE EARTH, AND SHALL DELIGHT THEMSELVES IN THE ABUNDANCE OF peace. (Wonderful promises in verse 9-11, for this is about to come to completion, as we are now in the Year of His Recompense that started at Rosh Hashanah in September 2010. The Bible reveals that within this year this will be completed.) ¹²THE WICKED PLOTS AGAINST THE JUST, AND GNASHES AT HIM WITH HIS TEETH. (The teeth in this case is the symbol of the Words of their mind being formed for evil. The teeth are likened to the recorded Word. When the Lord gives a tooth and says to become part of His Threshing Sledge, He is saying to be a doer of the recorded instruction of God's Words.) ¹³The Lord laughs at him, for He sees that his Day is coming. ¹⁴THE WICKED HAVE DRAWN THE SWORD AND HAVE BENT THEIR BOW, TO CAST DOWN THE POOR AND NEEDY, TO SLAY THOSE WHO ARE OF UPRIGHT CONDUCT (The Lord told us that in this Day they will do this - Mt. 24:20 and Mk. 13:18.) ¹⁵THEIR SWORD SHALL ENTER THEIR OWN HEART, AND THEIR BOWS SHALL BE BROKEN (The Lord is saying that the words that they have spoken will be the punishment that comes upon them. In other words, when Prince Philip of the UK said that he wanted to return as a virus to kill 95% of the people upon the earth, then it is likely that the Lord is going to destroy him with terrible viruses so that all the world will know of his wicked end. Likewise, when Henry Kissinger said that military men are just worthless pawns to be used for the purposes of the elite, then it is likely that his death will come by torture from the hands of many former military men who were under his hand. When Obama allowed people to call him to be like a god, then it is likely that the Lord will strike him in the same manner that he struck King Herod wherein he was suddenly stricken and eaten from the inside out by worms. Likewise when the Rothschild family say that they are like a god over the earth and that they can do what they will without the fear of the armies and peoples of a nation, then their children are likely to see the same reduction to eating grass like the cattle in the field as like occurred to King Nebuchadnezzar.) ¹⁶A LITTLE THAT A RIGHTEOUS MAN HAS IS BETTER THAN THE RICHES OF MANY WICKED. (This is a very important instruction to us of this Day, for the Lord is saying that it is better to go into Battle with His Words and His Promises of Good Works that the Father placed within His Words, than to have any of the weapons and laws made by the arms of man, for in verse 17 He reveals that all these weapons and works of man for evil and for power, shall be destroyed and cut off. Their missiles are going to cease and their weapons will not fire, when those who Love Him become hearers and doers of His Words.) ¹⁷FOR THE ARMS OF THE WICKED SHALL BE BROKEN, BUT THE LORD UPHOLDS THE RIGHTEOUS. ¹⁸The LORD knows the days of the upright, and their inheritance shall be forever (We are now in the Appointed Time when the Righteous shall receive their inheritance of the Kingdom of God.) ¹⁹They shall not be ashamed in the evil time, and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied. ²⁰But the wicked shall perish; and the enemies of the LORD, like the splendor of the meadows, shall vanish. Into smoke they shall vanish away. ²¹The wicked borrows and does not repay, but the righteous shows mercy and gives. ²²For those blessed by Him shall inherit the earth, but those cursed by Him shall be cut off. ²³The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD, and He delights in his way. ²⁴Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down; for the LORD upholds him with His hand. ²⁵I HAVE BEEN YOUNG, AND NOW AM OLD; YET I HAVE NOT SEEN THE RIGHTEOUS FORSAKEN, NOR HIS DESCENDANTS BEGGING BREAD. ²⁶He is ever merciful, and lends; and his descendants are blessed. ²⁷Depart from evil, and do Good; and dwell forevermore. (This is such a wonderful Promise of the Lord.) ²⁸For the LORD loves justice, and does not forsake His saints; they are preserved forever (Consider what He has just revealed very carefully, and you will see your future that is at hand if you will be persistent to seek His Words and to do the Ways of His Words.), but the descendants of the wicked shall be cut off. ²⁹The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell in it forever. (Here is the promise of the fulfillment of Daniel 2:44 that is now at hand, for it is for this very day - the Year of His Recompense - the Year that He brings forth His Elect to Light and turns them into children of God - the Saints of the Most High God.) ³⁰The mouth of the righteous speaks wisdom, and his tongue talks of justice. ³¹The Law of his God is in his heart (In Psalm 119:142 it becomes clear that this Law is to be a hearer of His Words and then going forth to be a doer of His Words.); none of his steps shall slide. ³²The wicked watches the righteous, and seeks to slay him. ³³The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged. ³⁴Wait on the LORD, and keep His Way (We are to be hearers of His Words and then be doers of the Ways of Good so that we can enable Him to do His Good Works for others and for the bringing forth of His Kingdom of Light.), and He shall exalt you to inherit the land; when the wicked are cut off, you shall see it. ³⁵I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a native green tree. ³⁶Yet he passed away, and behold, he was no more; indeed I sought him, but he could not be found. ³⁷MARK THE BLAMELESS MAN, AND OBSERVE THE UPRIGHT; FOR THE FUTURE OF THAT MAN IS PEACE. ³⁸But the transgressors shall be destroyed together; the future of the wicked shall be cut off. ³⁹But the salvation of the righteous is from the LORD; He is their strength in the time of trouble. ⁴⁰And the LORD shall help them and deliver them; He shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in Him.

Jesus Teaches the Fear of God

- ↳ Luke 12:4-7 ⁴And I say to you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. ⁵But I will show you whom you should fear: Fear Him who, after He has killed, has power to cast into hell; yes, I say to you, fear Him! ⁶Are not five sparrows sold for two copper coins? And not one of them is forgotten before God. ⁷But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not fear therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows.
- ↳ Luke 12:11-12 ¹¹Now when they bring you to the synagogues and magistrates and authorities, do not worry about how or what you should answer, or what you should say. ¹²FOR THE HOLY SPIRIT WILL TEACH YOU IN THAT VERY HOUR WHAT YOU OUGHT TO SAY."
- ↳ Matthew 10:16-26 ¹⁶Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents and harmless as doves. ¹⁷But beware of men, for they will deliver you up to councils and scourge you in their synagogues. ¹⁸YOU WILL BE BROUGHT BEFORE GOVERNORS AND KINGS FOR MY SAKE, AS A TESTIMONY TO THEM AND TO THE GENTILES. ¹⁹BUT WHEN THEY DELIVER YOU UP, DO NOT WORRY ABOUT HOW OR WHAT YOU SHOULD SPEAK. FOR IT WILL BE GIVEN TO YOU IN THAT HOUR WHAT YOU SHOULD SPEAK; ²⁰FOR IT IS NOT YOU WHO SPEAK, BUT THE SPIRIT OF YOUR FATHER WHO SPEAKS IN YOU. ²¹NOW BROTHER WILL DELIVER UP BROTHER TO DEATH, AND A FATHER HIS CHILD; AND

CHILDREN WILL RISE UP AGAINST PARENTS AND CAUSE THEM TO BE PUT TO DEATH.²² And you will be hated by all for My Name's sake. But he who endures to the end will be saved.²³ WHEN THEY PERSECUTE YOU IN THIS CITY, FLEE TO ANOTHER. FOR ASSUREDLY, I SAY TO YOU, YOU WILL NOT HAVE GONE THROUGH THE CITIES OF ISRAEL BEFORE THE SON OF MAN COMES.²⁴ A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master.²⁵ It is enough for a disciple that he be like his teacher, and a servant like his master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more will they call those of his household.²⁶ THEREFORE DO NOT FEAR THEM. FOR THERE IS NOTHING COVERED THAT WILL NOT BE REVEALED, AND HIDDEN THAT WILL NOT BE KNOWN.²⁷ WHATEVER I TELL YOU IN THE DARK, SPEAK IN THE LIGHT; AND WHAT YOU HEAR IN THE EAR, PREACH ON THE HOUSETOPS.²⁸ And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. But rather fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.²⁹ Are not two sparrows sold for a copper coin? And not one of them falls to the ground apart from your Father's will.³⁰ But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.³¹ Do not fear therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows.

The Parable of the Rich Fool

↳ Luke 12:13-21 ¹³Then one from the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me." ¹⁴But He said to him, "Man, who made Me a judge or an arbitrator over you?" ¹⁵And He said to them, "Take heed and beware of covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of the things he possesses." ¹⁶Then He spoke a parable to them, saying: "The ground of a certain rich man yielded plentifully." ¹⁷And he thought within himself, saying, 'What shall I do, since I have no room to store my crops?' ¹⁸So he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there I will store all my crops and my goods.' ¹⁹And I will say to my soul, "Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years; take your ease; eat, drink, and be merry." ²⁰BUT GOD SAID TO HIM, 'FOOL! THIS NIGHT YOUR SOUL WILL BE REQUIRED OF YOU; THEN WHOSE WILL THOSE THINGS BE WHICH YOU HAVE PROVIDED?' ²¹"SO IS HE WHO LAYS UP TREASURE FOR HIMSELF, AND IS NOT RICH TOWARD GOD."

Do Not Worry

↳ Luke 12:22-34 ²²Then He said to His disciples, "Therefore I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat; nor about the body, what you will put on. ²³Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing. ²⁴Consider the ravens, for they neither sow nor reap, which have neither storehouse nor barn; and God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds? ²⁵And which of you by worrying can add one cubit to his stature? ²⁶If you then are not able to do the least, why are you anxious for the rest? ²⁷Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; and yet I say to you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. ²⁸If then God so clothes the grass, which today is in the field and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will He clothe you, O you of little faith? ²⁹And do not seek what you should eat or what you should drink, NOR HAVE AN ANXIOUS MIND. ³⁰For all these things the nations of the world seek after, and your Father knows that you need these things. ³¹But seek the kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added to you. ³²DO NOT FEAR, LITTLE FLOCK, FOR IT IS YOUR FATHER'S GOOD PLEASURE TO GIVE YOU THE KINGDOM. ³³Sell what you have and give alms; provide yourselves money bags which do not grow old, a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches nor moth destroys. ³⁴For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

The Light, the hate, and the basket Scriptures and Parables of hidden revelation are interesting. We must be careful, for He sees and reveals.

- Mark 4:21-25 ²¹Also He said to them, "Is a lamp brought to be put under a basket or under a bed? Is it not to be set on a lampstand? ²²For there is nothing hidden which will not be revealed, nor has anything been kept secret but that it should come to light. ²³If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear." ²⁴Then He said to them, "Take heed what you hear. With the same measure you use, it will be measured to you; and to you who hear, more will be given. ²⁵For whoever has, to him more will be given; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him."
- Luke 8:16-21 ¹⁶"No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a vessel or puts it under a bed, but sets it on a lampstand, that those who enter may see the light. ¹⁷For nothing is secret that will not be revealed, nor anything hidden that will not be known and come to light. ¹⁸Therefore take heed how you hear. For whoever has, to him more will be given; and whoever does not have, even what he seems to have will be taken from him." ¹⁹Then His mother and brothers came to Him, and could not approach Him because of the crowd. ²⁰And it was told Him by some, who said, "Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see You." ²¹But He answered and said to them, "My mother and My brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it."
- Luke 12:1-3 ¹In the meantime, when an innumerable multitude of people had gathered together, so that they trampled one another, He began to say to His disciples first of all, "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. ²For there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, nor hidden that will not be known. ³Therefore whatever you have spoken in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in the ear in inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.

The Faithful Servant and the Evil Servant

- Luke 12:35-48 ³⁵"Let your waist be girded and your lamps burning; ³⁶and you yourselves be like men who wait for their master, when he will return from the wedding, that when he comes and knocks they may open to him immediately. ³⁷Blessed are those servants whom the master, when he comes, will find watching. Assuredly, I say to you that he will gird himself and have them sit down to eat, and will come and serve them. ³⁸And if he should come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants. ³⁹But know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and not allowed his house to be broken into. ⁴⁰Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect." ⁴¹Then Peter said to Him, "Lord, do You speak this parable only to us, or to all people?" ⁴²And the Lord said, "Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his master will make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of food in due season? ⁴³Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes. ⁴⁴Truly, I say to you that he will make him ruler over all that he has. ⁴⁵But if that servant says in his heart, 'My master is delaying his coming,' and begins to beat the male and female servants, and to eat and drink and be drunk, ⁴⁶the master of that servant will come on a day when he is not looking for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in two and appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. ⁴⁷And that servant who knew his master's will, and did not prepare himself or do according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. ⁴⁸But he who did not know, yet committed things deserving of stripes, shall be beaten with few. For everyone to whom much is given, from him much will be required; and to whom much has been committed, of him they will ask the more.

Christ Brings Division

- Luke 12:49-53 ⁴⁹"I came to send fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! ⁵⁰But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how distressed I am till it is accomplished! ⁵¹Do you suppose that I came to give peace on earth? I tell you, not at all, but rather division. ⁵²For from now on five in one house will be divided: three against two, and two against three. ⁵³Father will be divided against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."
- Matthew 10:34-38 ³⁴"Do not think that I came to bring peace on earth. I did not come to bring peace but a sword. ³⁵For I have come to 'set a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law'; ³⁶and 'a man's enemies will be those of his own household.' ³⁷He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. ³⁸And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. ³⁹He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it.

Discern the Time

- Luke 12:54-56 ⁵⁴Then He also said to the multitudes, "Whenever you see a cloud rising out of the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming'; and so it is. ⁵⁵And when you see the south wind blow, you say, 'There will be hot weather'; and there is. ⁵⁶Hypocrites! You can discern the face of the sky and of the earth, but HOW IS IT YOU DO NOT DISCERN THIS TIME?

Make Peace with Your Adversary

- Luke 12:57-59 ⁵⁷"Yes, and why, even of yourselves, do you not judge what is right? ⁵⁸When you go with your adversary to the magistrate, make every effort along the way to settle with him, lest he drag you to the judge, the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison. ⁵⁹I tell you, you shall not depart from there till you have paid the very last mite."

The Salt verses are interesting for they reveal some intriguing things. Also remember Lot's wife.

- Matthew 5:13-16 ¹³"You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men. ¹⁴"You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. ¹⁵Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. ¹⁶Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.
- Luke 14:34-35 ³⁴"Salt is good; but if the salt has lost its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? ³⁵It is neither fit for the land nor for the dunghill, but men throw it out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"
- Mark 9:38-50 ³⁸Now John answered Him, saying, "Teacher, we saw someone who does not follow us casting out demons in Your name, and we forbade him because he does not follow us." ³⁹But Jesus said, "Do not forbid him, for no one who works a miracle in My name can soon afterward speak evil of Me. ⁴⁰For he who is not against us is on our side. ⁴¹For whoever gives you a cup of water to drink in My name, because you belong to Christ, assuredly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward. ⁴²"But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea. ⁴³If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having two hands, to go to hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched— ⁴⁴where 'Their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.' ⁴⁵And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame, rather than having two feet, to be cast into hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched— ⁴⁶where 'Their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.' ⁴⁷And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire— ⁴⁸where 'Their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.' ⁴⁹"For everyone will be seasoned with fire, and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt. ⁵⁰Salt is good, but if the salt loses its flavor, how will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace with one another."

→ Psalm 21:1-13 ¹The king shall have joy in Your strength, O LORD; and in Your salvation how greatly shall he rejoice! ²You have given him his heart's desire, and have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah ³FOR YOU MEET HIM WITH THE BLESSINGS OF GOODNESS; YOU SET A CROWN OF PURE GOLD UPON HIS HEAD. ⁴HE ASKED LIFE FROM YOU, AND YOU GAVE IT TO HIM— LENGTH OF DAYS FOREVER AND EVER. ⁵His glory is great in Your salvation; honor and majesty You have placed upon him. ⁶For You have made him most blessed forever; You have made him exceedingly glad with Your presence. ⁷For the king trusts in the LORD, and through the mercy of the Most High he shall not be moved. ⁸Your hand will find all Your enemies; Your right hand will find those who hate You. ⁹You shall make them as a fiery oven in the time of Your anger; the LORD shall swallow them up in His wrath, and the fire shall devour them. ¹⁰Their offspring You shall destroy from the earth, and their descendants from among the sons of men. ¹¹For they intended evil against You; they devised a plot which they are not able to perform. ¹²Therefore You will make them turn their back; You will make ready Your arrows on Your string toward their faces. ¹³Be exalted, O LORD, in Your own strength! We will sing and praise Your power.

Wisdom Is God's Gift

→ Job 28:1-28 ¹"Surely there is a mine for silver, and a place where gold is refined. ²Iron is taken from the earth, AND COPPER IS SMELTED FROM ORE. ³Man puts an end to darkness, and searches every recess for ore in the darkness and the shadow of death. ⁴He breaks open a shaft away from people; in places forgotten by feet they hang far away from men; they swing to and fro. ⁵AS FOR THE EARTH, FROM IT COMES BREAD, BUT UNDERNEATH IT IS TURNED UP AS BY FIRE; ⁶ITS STONES ARE THE SOURCE OF SAPPHIRES, AND IT CONTAINS GOLD DUST. ⁷THAT PATH NO BIRD KNOWS, NOR HAS THE FALCON'S EYE SEEN IT. ⁸THE PROUD LIONS HAVE NOT TRODDEN IT, NOR HAS THE FIERCE LION PASSED OVER IT. ⁹He puts his hand on the flint; He overturns the mountains at the roots. ¹⁰HE CUTS OUT CHANNELS IN THE ROCKS, AND HIS EYE SEES EVERY PRECIOUS THING. ¹¹HE DAMS UP THE STREAMS FROM TRICKLING; WHAT IS HIDDEN HE BRINGS FORTH TO LIGHT. ¹²"BUT WHERE CAN WISDOM BE FOUND? AND WHERE IS THE PLACE OF UNDERSTANDING? ¹³Man does not know its value, nor is it found in the land of the living. ¹⁴The deep says, 'It is not in me'; and the sea says, 'It is not with me.' ¹⁵IT

CANNOT BE PURCHASED FOR GOLD, NOR CAN SILVER BE WEIGHED FOR ITS PRICE. ¹⁶IT CANNOT BE VALUED IN THE GOLD OF OPHIR, IN PRECIOUS ONYX OR SAPPHIRE. ¹⁷NEITHER GOLD NOR CRYSTAL CAN EQUAL IT, NOR CAN IT BE EXCHANGED FOR JEWELRY OF FINE GOLD. ¹⁸No mention shall be made of coral or quartz, for the price of wisdom is above rubies. ²⁰THE TOPAZ OF ETHIOPIA (Blackness) CANNOT EQUAL IT, NOR CAN IT BE VALUED IN PURE GOLD. ²⁰FROM WHERE THEN DOES WISDOM COME? AND WHERE IS THE PLACE OF UNDERSTANDING? ²¹IT IS HIDDEN FROM THE EYES OF ALL LIVING, AND CONCEALED FROM THE BIRDS OF THE AIR. ²²DESTRUCTION AND DEATH SAY, 'WE HAVE HEARD A REPORT ABOUT IT WITH OUR EARS.' ²³GOD UNDERSTANDS ITS WAY, AND HE KNOWS ITS PLACE. ²⁴FOR HE LOOKS TO THE ENDS OF THE EARTH, AND SEES UNDER THE WHOLE HEAVENS, ¹⁵to establish a weight for the wind, and apportion the waters by measure. ²⁶WHEN HE MADE A LAW FOR THE RAIN, AND A PATH FOR THE THUNDERBOLT, ²⁷THEN HE SAW WISDOM AND DECLARED IT; HE PREPARED IT, INDEED, HE SEARCHED IT OUT. ²⁸And to man He said, 'Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom, and to depart from evil is understanding.' "

The following is from Off the Grid News email of today. It is entitled "Is Your Pastor In Cahoots with the Government?"

Is Your Pastor In Cahoots with the Government?

Dear,

We're getting bombarded daily with the message from the main-stream media that this president and administration has become more "centrist." In November, he was a falling star, his party trounced in the elections, political commentators on the right and left questioning his agenda and ability to govern, and the growing consensus stating that he would be a one-term president.

It's now February, and that whole game has changed for the president. If nothing else, he's proved himself to be a master manipulator, playing the media like a banjo. They're singing his song, telling us how he's moved to the center of the aisle, embracing bipartisanship, and willing to work within the Washington culture.

That's a long cry from his "just sit down and shut up" advice to Republicans and the American people the last two years.

And a position that is suspect from the beginning.

The only thing this administration is master of is its chameleon-like positioning in order to ram through unconstitutional mandates when everyone has their guard down.

Health-care was one such agenda item, and big-government socialist policies (like taking over the banking and automotive sectors of the private economy) were another. He publically voiced "spreading the wealth around" and we want to act surprised when he hires people to do just that. Words matter, and it's time that America actually listen to what this president and administration is saying before it's too late.

He's not saying it - but gun control is on the table

Many anti-gun activists are upset that the president hasn't used the Tucson tragedy for more political traction on the gun-control issue. In fact, the issue of gun control was missing from the president's State of the Union speech, much to the consternation of many on the left.

But Chris Matthews, anchor of MSNBC's "Hardball", was quick to soothe the ruffled feathers of "cradle-to-the-grave" nanny-state statists nationwide by declaring that the president would present a separate gun-control speech sometime in the near future. Democrats in the Senate and House introduced legislation banning the possession of high-capacity magazines for weapons in conjunction with the president's State of the Union address.

This is how inroads are made into eroding 2nd amendment rights, by framing the argument around the weapon instead of the perpetrator. And this is what this administration is skilled at, publically showing a face of neutrality while others work in the background affecting the change and policies it actually supports.

If the past is any indication of the future, Americans better buckle up for a ride

This administration is no friend of the 2nd amendment. If the past is any indicator of the future, we haven't heard the end of gun-control. For instance:

- Then-Senator Barack Obama refused to sign a friend-of-the-court brief in support of second amendment rights in the Heller case.
- Barack Obama is on record calling for a 500% increase in the federal excise tax on firearms and ammunition.
- Barack Obama is on record endorsing a complete ban on handgun ownership.
- This administration supports gun owner licensing and gun registration.
- This administration has reversed American policy and is now working with the United Nations on global gun-control laws.

Don't think Republican control of the House and the thin majority Democrats enjoy in the Senate protects you

This administration has been termed the most contemptuous, defiant, and dismissive by the courts in regard to its policy decisions that run counter to the Constitution and court orders. This administration has done end-runs around the will of Congress by appointing more unconstitutional "czars" that answer to no one than any other administration in the history of this country.

This administration has been encouraged by many, including George Soros, to rule by executive order and fiat, rather than working through the constitutional safeguards of the Congress to forward its agenda.

And insiders in the administration have said that this is a viable option to push through those items the president deems necessary for his vision of America if Congress refuses to work with him.

If you're not concerned yet, you should be.

It's not all about guns...

In the face of Congress's refusal to address cap and trade regulations, this administration has decided that the EPA can unilaterally make up any regulations it sees fit to combat "global warming," this despite the fact that the world is well-aware it's nothing more than a hoax to further an environmentalist agenda and line the pockets of Al Gore and his cronies.

Your representatives are trying to push through an Internet kill switch bill, giving the president sole power to kill the Internet at any time he deems it a "security risk" to the nation. Of course the definition of security risk is left to the administration's discretion.

Keynesian economic models are being used to drive this country's economy into the ground. We have an unconstitutional Federal Reserve of twelve bankers pushing this country to a globalist, one-world-order currency and agenda, and that freight train just keeps speeding up faster and faster toward the point of no return. Political unrest because of economic policy is not limited to the Middle East. We've seen it spread all across Europe as well, and you can bet that our government is making plans to stop any populist uprising in this country.

Will we see martial law imposed in the United States?

The threat of martial law is all around us, and it's coming from every quarter. For instance:

- Federal reserve Chairman Ben Bernanke threatened the specter of martial law back in 2009 when he said if the stimulus was not passed, the economy would collapse and anarchy would prevail.
- Thousands of foreign troops are in the U.S. to assist with "domestic emergencies."
- Homeland Security has deemed that returning veterans, tax protesters, and anti-abortion advocates, among others, are "terrorists."
- George W. Bush signed a treaty with Mexico and Canada that allows the U.S. government to call on their troops to quell any public unrest in the United States

And while there have been sporadic declarations of martial law in the past, what our government has planned for the future is unprecedented in the history of this nation.

- The government is using pastors in a targeted outreach at churches all across America to teach their congregations that absolute fealty to the American government is "God's will."
- In direct opposition to the Posse Comitatus act, U.S. military forces are being used against the citizenry of the United States more and more frequently, and are now being actively recruited to police forces across America.
- Actual training courses are being implemented for our military and police forces for a major martial law event.

- By appointing activist judges that rule through international precedent instead of through application of the Constitution, administrations have set into play the necessary elements of suspending the Constitution at any time a president deems fit.

There is so much more I could tell you, but time and space won't allow it. However, Solutions From Science's Understanding and Surviving Martial Law can show you not only the dangers that exist in this country today, but the steps you can take to live through the confiscation of your weapons and the implementation of martial law. Understanding and Surviving Martial Law will show you:

- What the most dangerous agency in the U.S. is
- The nine most dangerous numbers in your life.
- What the World War II phrase "loose lips sink ships" means to you and your family today.
- The 15 essential supplies you MUST have to survive the coming police state... including one very unusual one that nine out of ten survivalists would never guess.
- Secrets to use nature's bounty to stay healthy... even when government has total control over your health care
- The one thing you can do today to make sure your family eats like royalty-regardless of how bad things get-instead of waiting in line for your FEMA ration card
