The Glory of the Lord is rising to set the Captives free

The Lord promised that He is coming at this time to set the captives free. If you understand that we have now completed the seven years of the Evening, then you can understand that it is the Time when the Lord is going to bring forth freedom and take His Recompense. He never changes His Way. He did it in Deuteronomy 15 and He did it in Jeremiah 34. Take notice that not only did He set the people free from the enemies, He also set them free from the bondage of their own leaders and religious leaders at that time. In addition, those who refuse to set His people free were sent away into destruction and ruin, or into captivity. In Isaiah 34 He makes known the way of His Judgment in this Day and the reason for it.

There was a Prophetic Word today about His people to gather and to go forth by His Truth to defeat Minerva. Minerva was the supposed daughter of Jupiter and Metis. She was considered to be the virgin goddess of warriors, poetry, medicine, wisdom, commerce, crafts, etc. The Lord is saying that the people do not know the Way of His Power and how to battle, but He is going to cause it to be made known. His Power is in His Words - Ecclesiastes 8:4, and it is by the entrance of His Words that we get the Light and get understanding - Psalm 119:130. Further His words are Truth John 17:17, Psalm 119:160, and all His Works are done in Truth. So people, please learn His Words and He will cause you to know the Ways to overcome the world - Proverbs 1:23, John 15:7, 1 John 15:7, John 5:24.

The Wisdom of the Kingdom of God is Needed

Tonight I sat down again to pray in the first watch and again, the Lord began to show me that which He wished His body to see.

At the first I saw a woman dressed in unusual clothing and on a battlefield engaged in fighting; I realized I was seeing the demon principality known as Minerva.

In the Spirit the Lord caused me to know this: To battle Mammon, we must first defeat Minerva, who represents conventional wisdom exalting itself against the army of Christ. She has ensnared people who think they know what to do, how to pray, how to fight. And then I knew as though it were emblazoned on a marquis above me, this wisdom from the Lord: THE OLD WAYS ARE NO MORE.

Then, the Lord spoke: "My people need a new strategy. They must battle corporately in order to be able to battle that which is coming against them now. It is for this reason that I speak to them about giving up a mindset that is divisive against other members of the Body."

He continued, "They must stir themselves up and join the battle." And He put me in mindfulness of 2 Ti 1:6 "Therefore I remind you to stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands." And, I saw a vision of our Lord standing very tall, and very stately, radiating an immense strength as He held a broadsword that appeared to be composed of nothing less than the pure light of the Spirit; I knew I was seeing Him as the Commander of the Armies.

Again He continued on: "Those who are timid or inexperienced in warfare must still join the fray. Their job is to pray for the safety of those engaged in battle; pray that the strategies of the enemy will be revealed; pray for the strength and endurance of those charged with the responsibility of tearing down the gates of hell that protect the foundation of Mammon's throne. No one is exempt from this battle."

Matt 16:8 "And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build My church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

Then, I saw our Lord in Heaven, with a woman dressed in a Bridal gown sitting on a throne next to Him. Her dress sparkled with an impossibly bright light, and the train of her dress went on, and on, and on, for what seemed like forever. He was gazing at her with a rapt look on His face, and I knew that He loved her with a passion that was beyond anything I could envision in the earthly realm. It was for His Bride that He had suffered, and died, and been raised again, and for the sake of His Bride, He was now once again, revealing Himself as Savior and King.

Again He spoke:

"For those who have not yet come to the battle, tell them it is not too late to join. For any who would come, let them but ask of me and I will direct them in the paths in which they should go." Isaiah 42:16 "I will bring the blind by a way they did not know; I will lead them in paths they have not known. I will make darkness light before them, and crooked places straight. These things I will do for them and not forsake them."

"I will lift their arms as Aaron and Hur lifted the arms of Moses." Ex 17:12

"I will give them courage as I gave David the courage to champion My cause against Goliath." 1 Sa 17:32

And then He turned, and He was no longer speaking just to me. It seemed like He was looking out at all of us who are members of His body, and He spoke these words:

"All wisdom necessary for winning this fight shall be given unto you, My Body, but it will not be a wisdom of man's devising, but a Heavenly wisdom that has been in place since before Daniel saw the Ancient of Days seated in the assemblage of Heaven." Daniel 7:9. And that was the last thing I heard Him say.

And then, after this, I was caught up into Heaven. And my eyes were permitted to run to and fro, over all the earth, and wherever I looked, I saw men and women in the Army of the Lord, engaged in battle. They were not in fear; they were not in defeat; they knew what they were to do, and they were doing it. And the battle covered the whole of the earth.

And this, then, was the ending of the vision.

And another Prophetic Word today was to become like clay and let Him change you.

January 19, 2011

Beloved, I have gone before you to open avenues of opportunity necessary to fulfill your purpose on the next leg of your journey. The doors are opening for you even now, but you must be alert to the possibilities and be aware of the leading of My Spirit. This will be true in the small or seemingly insignificant things of life as well as the things that could bring broad, sweeping changes. Your part is to go with the flow keeping your focus on Me, says the Lord, as you maintain complete trust and faith in Me alone. I want you to be like clay, malleable and willing to yield to the pressure of My hand through your circumstances, for there are things that still need to be reworked, shaped, and transformed into My image as you progress.

Jeremiah 18:2-6 "Arise and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear My words." Then I went down to the potter's house, and there he was, making something at the wheel. And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter; so he made it again into another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to make. Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: "O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter?" says the LORD. "Look, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are you in My hand, O house of Israel!"

The Scriptures tell us that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever Hebrews 13:8. So consider what He said that He would do:

- Luke 4:16-19 ¹⁶So He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up. And as His custom was, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read. ¹⁷And He was handed the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when He had opened the book, He found the place where it was written: ¹⁸"The Spirit of the LORD is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed; ¹⁹to proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD."
- Isaiah 42:1 "Here is my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen one in whom I delight; I will put my Spirit on him and he will bring justice to the nations.
- Isaiah 49:9 to say to the captives, 'Come out,' and to those in darkness, 'Be free!' "They will feed beside the roads and find pasture on every barren hill.
- Isaiah 61:1 The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is on me, because the LORD has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners,
- Micah 4:6 "In that Day," declares the Lord, I will assemble the lame and gather the outcasts, even those whom I have afflicted".
- Zephaniah 3:19 "Behold, I am going to deal at that time with all your oppressors, I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will turn their shame into praise and renown in all the earth".

The Lord is coming to give Judgment at this Time and to take His Recompense. That includes causing His Glory to be made known until it covers all the earth (Hab. 2:14, Is. 11:9, Num. 14:21). In Joel 2:32 He says that all those who turn, repent and call upon His Name - the Words of God - that they shall be saved, for in James 2:13 we are told that the Lord's mercy triumphs over judgment. But, He is going to be harsh on the unrepentant.

The LORD's Wrath upon the Nations for the cause of Zion has come. That means that the Lord's vengeance is because of the purpose of the Glory that He created the heavens and that they have trampled upon and have determined to teach false science and even His churches have accepted it and become unwise. Note that there are 17 verses.

- Isaiah 34:1-17 ¹Come near, you nations, to hear; and heed, you people! Let the earth hear, and all that is in it, the world and all things that come forth from it. ²FOR THE INDIGNATION OF THE LORD IS AGAINST ALL NATIONS, and HIS FURY AGAINST ALL THEIR ARMIES; HE HAS UTTERLY DESTROYED THEM, HE HAS GIVEN THEM OVER TO THE SLAUGHTER. ³Also their slain shall be thrown out; their stench shall rise from their corpses, and the mountains shall be melted with their blood. ⁴ALL THE HOST OF HEAVEN SHALL BE DISSOLVED, AND THE HEAVENS SHALL BE ROLLED UP LIKE A SCROLL; ALL THEIR HOST SHALL FALL DOWN AS THE LEAF FALLS FROM THE VINE, AND AS FRUIT FALLING FROM A FIG TREE. ⁵"For My sword shall be bathed in heaven; indeed it shall come down on Edom (The meaning of this name is "red", "earthly", or "blood"), and on the people of My curse, for judgment. ⁶The sword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is made overflowing with fatness, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams (This is on even His own lambs as He foretells in Zech. 10:3, Jeremiah 49-50 - all those who rejected to receive of His invitations to come to His Great Supper and increase in the knowledge of Truth - the manna that comes down from Heaven - His Words.). For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah (The meaning of this name is "in tribulation", or "in distress"), and a great slaughter in the land of Edom. ⁷The wild oxen shall come down with them, and the young bulls with the mighty bulls; their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust saturated with fatness." ⁸FOR IT IS THE DAY OF THE LORD'S VENGEANCE, THE YEAR

OF RECOMPENSE FOR THE CAUSE OF ZION. ⁹Its streams shall be turned into pitch, and its dust into brimstone; its land shall become burning pitch. ¹⁰It shall not be quenched night or day; its smoke shall ascend forever. From generation to generation it shall lie waste; no one shall pass through it forever and ever. ¹¹But the pelican and the porcupine shall possess it, also the owl and the raven shall dwell in it. And He shall stretch out over it the line of confusion and the stones of emptiness. ¹²They shall call its nobles to the kingdom, but none shall be there, and all its princes shall be nothing. ¹³And thorns shall come up in its palaces, nettles and brambles in its fortresses; it shall be a habitation of jackals, a courtyard for ostriches. ¹⁴The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the jackals, and the wild goat shall bleat to its companion; also the night creature shall rest there, and find for herself a place of rest. ¹⁵There the arrow snake (This means that they will receive the judgment for the sin of their words, for His Words are the arrow - the shining shaft - in the quiver of God - Isaiah 49:2. His Wisdom called out Her Words but they rejected to seek out Her Ways of His Promises of Good works and Power that He placed into His Words from before the foundations of the earth and the heavens.) shall make her nest and lay eggs and hatch, and gather them under her shadow; there also shall the hawks be gathered, every one with her mate. ¹⁶Search from the book of the LORD, and read: Not one of these shall fail; not one shall lack her mate. For My mouth has commanded it, and His Spirit has gathered them. ¹⁷He has cast the lot for them, and His hand has divided it among them with a measuring line. They shall possess it forever; from generation to generation they shall dwell in it."

→ Revelation 6:12-17 ¹²I LOOKED WHEN HE OPENED THE SIXTH SEAL, AND BEHOLD, THERE WAS A GREAT EARTHQUAKE; AND THE SUN BECAME BLACK AS SACKCLOTH OF HAIR, AND THE MOON BECAME LIKE BLOOD. ¹³AND THE STARS OF HEAVEN FELL TO THE EARTH, AS A FIG TREE DROPS ITS LATE FIGS WHEN IT IS SHAKEN BY A MIGHTY WIND. ¹⁴THEN THE SKY RECEDED AS A SCROLL WHEN IT IS ROLLED UP, AND EVERY MOUNTAIN AND ISLAND WAS MOVED OUT OF ITS PLACE. ¹⁵And the kings of the earth, the great men, the rich men, the commanders, the mighty men, every slave and every free man, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains, ¹⁶and said to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb! ¹⁷For the great day of His wrath has come, and who is able to stand?"

It is clearly the Appointed Time, for it is made known in the Scriptures as He had me to reveal, and He has also declared it:

The Time On His Harvest Clock Has Run Out! His Night Has Come, Death Follows!!

Prophetic Word from Oct. 2010:

Recently I was shown people sitting in darkness. When I asked why, they responded, "The power has gone out!" I climbed a ladder to change the fuse in the breaker box but to my surprise, when I pulled the cover off, I found it to be an old clock without hands. I could tell that it was very, very old, but once the cover was removed, the face was very clear. On the face of the clock was a farmer holding a pitch fork and bales of hay behind him. I knew the clock had not been used for a very long time. When I reached out to change the fuse, the box caught fire. The heat from the flames was intense but they did not burn me; they radiated my face.

Luke 3:17 "His winnowing fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor, and gather the wheat into His barn; but the chaff He will burn with unquenchable fire."

John 12:48 "He who rejects Me, and does not receive My Words, has that which judges him - the Word I have spoken will judge him on the last day."

If the Words of our face are our words, and not the Words of God, then the fire of God will come upon our face and our words will be burnt up.....

His Harvest Time of Threshing and Winnowing has come and He will do so with an Iron Rod and Strong Teeth on His Sledge:

Time's Up! The Threshing Of His Flock and the Burning of the Wicked Now Comes!

On Sept. 23rd, 2010 the Lord gave a profound follow-up vision to the young lady Christine. Sept. 23rd was the first day of the Feast of Tabernacles in this His Year of Recompense. Christine received this Prophetic Vision during a Bible studies class. They had been discussing the subject of "fear". During the class, the Lord suddenly gave her a profound vision that was a confirmation of the Prophetic Vision about His church and about His youth, given to Christine on April 7th, 2010. In this vision the Lord uses a Lion that changes into a Tiger like Moses' staff turned into the Viper. It means the Appointed Time of His Threshing of the Wheat and the burning of the chaff has come. Will be of His thrashers, or will you be thrashed?

This is a Prophetic Vision given by the Lord to a young lady named Christine on Sept. 23rd, 2010. Christine said the door of her classroom seemed to open and a large lion entered the classroom and began walking up and down the aisles of the students. What was striking was that the Lion kept changing from a lion into the striking appearance of a tiger, and then it would change back into the lion. It continued changing back and forth between lion and tiger as it walked slowly through the rows of students in the classroom. Christine says that the moment the lion/tiger entered into the classroom, the students were suddenly divided. Some of them were lined up in rows along the one side of the wall, while the balance of the students was lined up in rows on the other side of the room. However, her desk was located in the middle of the classroom, for she was seated apart by herself. Finally the lion/tiger came to her desk. As it came to her it changed from the lion and into the tiger. The tiger looked straight at her and then it spoke to her. The tiger said to her, "The Time Has Come. Believe In The Words!" The Tiger then raised its paw and it placed a Tiger Tooth into her hand. She was looking at the Tiger Tooth and then suddenly the Tiger/Lion was gone, and the tooth was also gone. Isaiah 41:15 "Behold, I will make you into a new threshing sledge with sharp teeth; you shall thresh the mountains and beat them small, and make the hills like chaff."

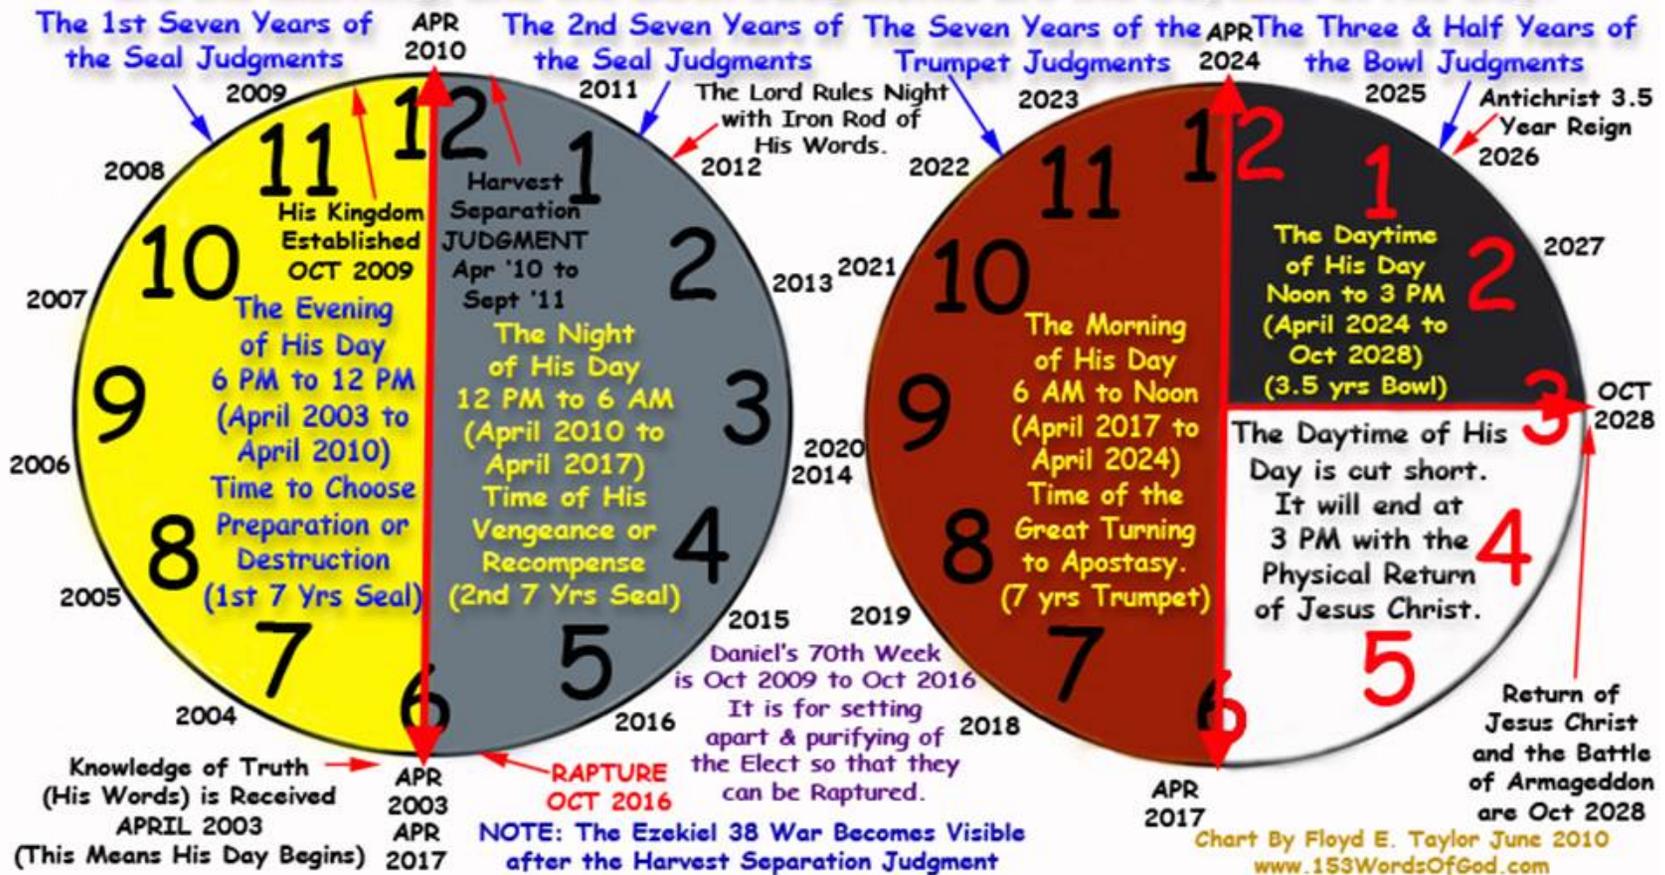

It's the Appointed Time for the Threshing of His Wheat!

We need to know the Day and that seven years has past, for He said that He will rise up only when His Recompense has come.

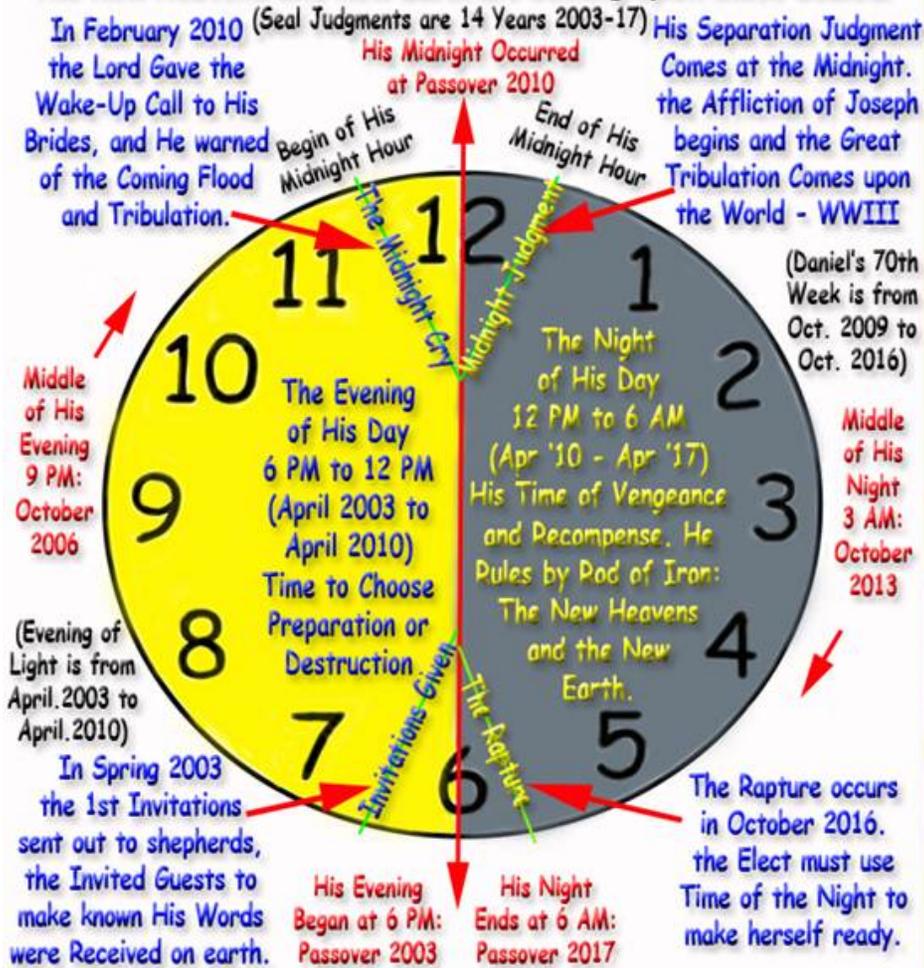

The Appointed Times of the Clock of the Day of the Lord

The Father makes known within the Bible that the Day of the Lord is a Time of 24.5 years, for it is a Time, Times, and a Half-Time. The Bible reveals that a Time is equal to Seven (7) Years. The Day of the Lord is 24.5 years because the Lord says that for necessity of His Word, He will cut His Day short. His Day begins in the Evening (~6 PM) and it will end at 3 PM of the Daytime. The Seal Judgments are the Evening and the Night of His Day. The Trumpet Judgments are the Morning, and the Bowl Judgments are the Daytime of His Day.

WE ARE IN THE NIGHT OF HIS DAY

His Midnight has come, His Evening is over. The Appointed Time of the Night of His Day has come. His Time of the Threshing and the Winnowing has began. At the Midnight His Wisdom went out of His Church. We are approaching the end of the Midnight Hour. The New Heavens and New Earth are coming upon those Sealed.

NOW IS THE NIGHT OF HIS PROMISE

We have believed in traditions regarding the Day of the Lord and we have failed to try to comprehend His parables with open eyes and ears that hear Him. For in His parables He explains the ways of that Day, and He explains the Ways of the Father so that we should have been able to know that Time when the Father caused His Words to be made known to us. If we would have discerned the knowledge of Truth we would know His Day and we would know that in the Night the wise will be kept safe and secure in His Barn as within a womb. During the Night of His Day no harm will come upon His oil and wine – His Elect – who have set themselves apart from the world so they become prepared and made spotless as Saints for His Coming!

Revelation 6:5-6 When He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, "Come and see." So I looked, and behold, a black horse, and he who sat on it had a pair of scales in his hand. And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A quart of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and DO NOT HARM THE OIL AND THE WINE."

The Scriptures tell us that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever Hebrews 13:8. When we know that this is the Year of Recompense, then we need to heed Him and discern what does it mean. Tonight we will look at this from Deuteronomy 15 and Jeremiah 34. In this Year of Recompense, we are no longer allowed to borrow. We are to be released from debts and do not create more.

- Deuteronomy 15:1-6 ¹"At the end of every seven years you shall grant a release of debts. ²And this is the form of the release: Every creditor who has lent anything to his neighbor shall release it; he shall not require it of his neighbor or his brother, because it is called the LORD's release. ³Of a foreigner you may require it; but you shall give up your claim to what is owed by your brother, ⁴except when there may be no poor among you; for the LORD will greatly bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess as an inheritance— ⁵only if you carefully obey the voice of the LORD your God, to observe with care all these commandments which I command you today. ⁶For the LORD your God will bless you just as He promised you; you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow; you shall reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over you.

Generosity to the Poor

- Deuteronomy 15:7-11 ⁷"If there is among you a poor man of your brethren, within any of the gates in your land which the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not harden your heart nor shut your hand from your poor brother, ⁸but you shall open your hand wide to him and willingly lend him sufficient for his need, whatever he needs. ⁹Beware lest there be a wicked thought in your heart, saying, 'The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand,' and your eye be evil against your poor brother and you give him nothing, and he cry out to the LORD against you, and it become sin among you. ¹⁰You shall surely give to him, and your heart should not be grieved when you give to him, because for this thing the LORD your God will bless you in all your works and in all to which you put your hand. ¹¹For the poor will never cease from the land; therefore I command you, saying, 'You shall open your hand wide to your brother, to your poor and your needy, in your land.'

The Law concerning bondservants and taxes.

- Deuteronomy 15:12-18 ¹²"If your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you and serves you six years, then in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you. ¹³And when you send him away free from you, you shall not let him go away empty-handed; ¹⁴you shall supply him liberally from your flock, from your threshing floor, and from your winepress. From what the LORD has blessed you with, you shall give to him. ¹⁵You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you; therefore I command you this thing today. ¹⁶And if it happens that he says to you, 'I will not go away from you,' because he loves you and your house, since he prospers with you, ¹⁷then you shall take an awl and thrust it through his ear to the door, and he shall be your servant forever. Also to your female servant you shall do likewise. ¹⁸IT SHALL NOT SEEM HARD TO YOU WHEN YOU SEND HIM AWAY FREE FROM YOU; FOR HE HAS BEEN WORTH A DOUBLE HIRED SERVANT IN SERVING YOU SIX YEARS. Then the LORD your God will bless you in all that you do.
- Deuteronomy 15:19-23 ¹⁹"All the firstborn males that come from your herd and your flock you shall sanctify to the LORD your God; you shall do no work with the firstborn of your herd, nor shear the firstborn of your flock. ²⁰You and your household shall eat it before the LORD your God year by year in the place which the LORD chooses. ²¹But if there is a defect in it, if it is lame or blind or has any serious defect, you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD your God. ²²You may eat it within your gates; the unclean and the clean person alike may eat it, as if it were a gazelle or a deer. ²³Only you shall not eat its blood; you shall pour it on the ground like water.

→ Jeremiah 34:1-7 ¹The Word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army, all the kingdoms of the earth under his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem and all its cities, saying, ²"Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. ³And you shall not escape from his hand, but shall surely be taken and delivered into his hand; your eyes shall see the eyes of the king of Babylon, he shall speak with you face to face, and you shall go to Babylon.' " ' ⁴Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah! Thus says the LORD concerning you: 'You shall not die by the sword. ⁵YOU SHALL DIE IN PEACE; AS IN THE CEREMONIES OF YOUR FATHERS, THE FORMER KINGS WHO WERE BEFORE YOU, SO THEY SHALL BURN INCENSE FOR YOU AND LAMENT FOR YOU, SAYING, "ALAS, LORD!" FOR I HAVE PRONOUNCED THE WORD, SAYS THE LORD.' " ⁶Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, ⁷when the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and Azekah; for only these fortified cities remained of the cities of Judah.

They took up their cross and then they looked back and became unworthy.

→ Jeremiah 34:8-22 ⁸This is the Word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem to proclaim liberty to them: ⁹that every man should set free his male and female slave—a Hebrew man or woman—that no one should keep a Jewish brother in bondage. ¹⁰Now when all the princes and all the people, who had entered into the covenant, heard that everyone should set free his male and female slaves, that no one should keep them in bondage anymore, they obeyed and let them go. ¹¹But afterward they changed their minds and made the male and female slaves return, whom they had set free, and brought them into subjection as male and female slaves. ¹²THEREFORE THE WORD OF THE LORD CAME TO JEREMIAH FROM THE LORD, SAYING, ¹³"THUS SAYS THE LORD, THE GOD OF ISRAEL: 'I MADE A COVENANT WITH YOUR FATHERS IN THE DAY THAT I BROUGHT THEM OUT OF THE LAND OF EGYPT, OUT OF THE HOUSE OF BONDAGE, SAYING, ¹⁴"AT THE END OF SEVEN YEARS LET EVERY MAN SET FREE HIS HEBREW BROTHER, WHO HAS BEEN SOLD TO HIM; AND WHEN HE HAS SERVED YOU SIX YEARS, YOU SHALL LET HIM GO FREE FROM YOU." BUT YOUR FATHERS DID NOT OBEY ME NOR INCLINE THEIR EAR. ¹⁵THEN YOU RECENTLY TURNED AND DID WHAT WAS RIGHT IN MY SIGHT—EVERY MAN PROCLAIMING LIBERTY TO HIS NEIGHBOR; AND YOU MADE A COVENANT BEFORE ME IN THE HOUSE WHICH IS CALLED BY MY NAME. ¹⁶THEN YOU TURNED AROUND AND PROFANED MY NAME, AND EVERY ONE OF YOU BROUGHT BACK HIS MALE AND FEMALE SLAVES, WHOM HE HAD SET AT LIBERTY, AT THEIR PLEASURE, AND BROUGHT THEM BACK INTO SUBJECTION, TO BE YOUR MALE AND FEMALE SLAVES.' ¹⁷"Therefore thus says the LORD: 'You have not obeyed Me in proclaiming liberty, everyone to his brother and every one to his neighbor. Behold, I proclaim liberty to you,' says the LORD—'to the sword, to pestilence, and to famine! And I will deliver you to trouble among all the kingdoms of the earth. ¹⁸AND I WILL GIVE THE MEN WHO HAVE TRANSGRESSED MY COVENANT, WHO HAVE NOT PERFORMED THE WORDS OF THE COVENANT WHICH THEY MADE BEFORE ME, WHEN THEY CUT THE CALF IN TWO AND PASSED BETWEEN THE PARTS OF IT— ¹⁹the princes of Judah, the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf— ²⁰I WILL GIVE THEM INTO THE HAND OF THEIR ENEMIES AND INTO THE HAND OF THOSE WHO SEEK THEIR LIFE. Their dead bodies shall be for meat for the birds of the heaven and the beasts of the earth. ²¹And I will give Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes into the hand of their enemies, into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army which has gone back from you. ²²Behold, I will command,' says the LORD, 'and cause them to return to this city. They will fight against it and take it and burn it with fire; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without inhabitant.' "

Devvy has some words on the economy.

True state of the economy

You better be darn scared

By: Devvy, January 17, 2011

The damnable lies that continue out of lazy, corrupt media mouthpieces regarding the true state of the economy is nothing short of reprehensible. We expect politicians to lie every time they open their mouths. We expect ethically bankrupt crooks like Ben Bernanke and Timothy Geithner to lie every time they open their mouth to protect their banking interests. However, a free media is supposed to be the watch dog for government corruption and report the facts, not propaganda. Not so for a long, long time for what is known as the "mainstream" media. Fools they are because like tens of millions of others, they will also be reduced to penury. Lackeys for their corporate masters no longer question numbers; perhaps they are as ignorant as the majority of adults in this country when it comes to fiat currency and taxation.

The pathological liar camped out in the White House recently upchucked, "'We're digging ourselves out of a hole"' when the fake unemployment numbers allegedly show the jobless rate had dropped to the lowest level for 19 months. Bernanke, master in the art of deception, was pumping more false hope last month: "The Chairman of the Federal Reserve Ben Bernanke says until the U.S. economic system is completely stabilized, the country will be slow to climb completely out of its latest recession and that could mean high unemployment rates for a few more years. A native of Dillon, Bernanke made the remarks during a rare interview on CBS' "60 Minutes," which aired Sunday night."

Geithner says the U.S. government is broke, but look at his role in facilitating the coming collapse! Everything done by the private banking cartel [FED] with the full cooperation of Geithner is exactly the same destructive path taken by FDR. One of the most accurate and comprehensive writings on how the "New Deal" made the situation even worse back during the "Great" Depression is a piece by Lawrence W. Reed titled, Great Myths of the Great Depression. You will see the same programs touted by the communist in the White House are near twins of the failures promoted by FDR. While Lawrence's piece is 16 pages, it is well worth the time to get a good education on what didn't work and actually prolonged the depression by a decade. We are reliving history.

More lies from the media:

"The nation's unemployment rate is 9.8 percent. South Carolina's unemployment rate stands at 10.2 percent. Bernanke says what concerns him now is the length of time many America's have been out of the workforce."

Unemployment in this country is at depression levels. By 1933, unemployment peaked at 25%. The criminal syndicate out in DC ("our" government) claims unemployment is 9.8%. Really? The "official" unemployment number is 14, 443,867 Americans out of work. The actual number is 25, 684,164. Staggering numbers. 25.6 MILLION Americans have no jobs thanks to the Outlaw Congress and reckless spending by the states.

Stabilize the economy? Pray tell, Bernanke, how will do you that without jobs being created? How will you do that when ONE MILLION homes were foreclosed on last year and an estimated 20 MILLION homeowners will have underwater mortgages by the end of 2011? Someone tell me how you grow the economy with those numbers when the only real wealth for most Americans is their home?

"RealtyTrac® (www.realtytrac.com), the leading online marketplace for foreclosure properties, today released its Year-End 2010 U.S. Foreclosure Market Report™, which shows a total of 3,825,637 foreclosure filings — default notices, scheduled auctions and bank repossessions — were reported on a record 2,871,891 U.S. properties in 2010, an increase of nearly 2 percent from 2009 and an increase of 23 percent from 2008. The report also shows that 2.23 percent of all U.S. housing units (one in 45) received at least one foreclosure filing during the year, up from 2.21 percent in 2009, 1.84 percent in 2008, 1.03 percent in 2007 and 0.58 percent in 2006.

"Foreclosure filings were reported on 257,747 U.S. properties in December, a decrease of nearly 2 percent from the previous month and down 26 percent from December 2009 — the biggest annual drop in foreclosure activity since RealtyTrac began publishing its foreclosure report in January 2005 and giving December the lowest monthly total since June 2008.

"December Default notices (NOD, LIS) decreased 4 percent from the previous month and were down 35 percent from December 2009; Scheduled foreclosure auctions (NTS, NFS) decreased 3 percent from the previous month and were down 20 percent from December 2009; and bank repossessions (REO) increased nearly 4 percent from the previous month — thanks in part to substantial month-over-month increases in some states such as Nevada (71 percent increase), Arizona (52 percent increase) and California (47 percent increase) — but were still down 24 percent from December 2009.

"Foreclosure filings were reported on 799,064 U.S. properties in the fourth quarter, a 14 percent decrease from the previous quarter and an 8 percent decrease from the fourth quarter of 2009. The fourth quarter total was the lowest quarterly total since Q4 2008.

"Total properties receiving foreclosure filings would have easily exceeded 3 million in 2010 had it not been for the fourth quarter drop in foreclosure activity — triggered primarily by the continuing controversy surrounding foreclosure documentation and procedures that prompted many major lenders to temporarily halt some foreclosure proceedings," said James J. Saccacio, chief executive officer of RealtyTrac. "Even so, 2010 foreclosure activity still hit a record high for our report, and many of the foreclosure proceedings that were stopped in late 2010 — which we estimate may be as high as a quarter million — will likely be re-started and add to the numbers in early 2011."

More and more Americans have been forced to borrow from their retirement accounts. Wow, you can borrow your own money at a small interest rate! More borrowing, more debt. To buy food or keep their homes from foreclosure.

Stabilize the economy while the Outlaw Congress picks our bones in taxes while liars like John Boehner and Eric Cantor tout cuts in spending instead of reducing the size of government by abolishing unconstitutional cabinets like the "Federal" Department of Education which sucks down $66 BILLION BORROWED dollars a year? Same old rhetoric. America just reelected 82% of incumbents back to the Outlaw Congress! Now you expect them to reduce the size of government with more Band Aids?

Tell me how you're going to stabilize the economy when we the people have been dragged against our will into global financial instruments sucking the lifeblood out of this country?

Tell me how you stabilize the economy when the cost of food is going through the roof and will continue to rise to the point where average working families will go hungry in a land so rich in human and natural resources? We are prepared with food storage, but tens of millions of Americans live paycheck to paycheck and have nothing left to stock up on food. The cost of everything is going up because the value of that paper "dollar" in your wallet continues to go down. As the price of oil continues to rise, so will the price at the grocery store.

Because of failed crops due to weather (manipulation), the cost of healthy, fresh food will continue to skyrocket because that "dollar" in your wallet continues to lose value.

Think 25.6 MILLION unemployed Americans have money for spending other than bare life essentials? Tell me how you stabilize the economy when millions of Americans who have lost their homes have no disposable income, many living in tents or their cars?

Tell me how you can stabilize the economy when social security and Medicare are $99 TRILLION dollars in liabilities, not to mention prescription pill liabilities at $19.5 TRILLION dollars? 10,000 "baby boomers" are retiring everyday. There isn't enough paper to print more debt currency to cover those debts. A thermonuclear bomb is ticking just waiting to go off.

To all the geniuses in the Outlaw Congress, Bernanke, Geithner and other liars, tell me how you're going to stabilize the economy when faced with numbers that could out number the stars in the universe? Oh, I know! Spend your way out of debt! That is precisely how the planned destruction of our economy is unfolding. Make no mistake: The bankers are getting theirs first while the rest of us are being reduced to poverty.

Are you following the riots in countries like Greece, Italy and Ireland? Think it won't come to America? Think again. Those socialist countries are buried in oceans of unpayable debt due to overspending and because they are socialist governments that will always go bankrupt. Their citizens are in an uproar because they see their "entitlements" on the chopping block. Think it won't come to the states that are on the brink of total insolvency? Empty bellies make for angry mobs.

I know time is an issue, but everything you've ever worked for is being stolen by a system of corruption and greed facilitated by the Outlaw Congress, the fraud in the White House and all past presidents since 1913. All of them, including darling of the right, Ronnie Reagan, have lied to the American people about the income tax, have done nothing (except Rep. Ron Paul's persistent campaign against the "Fed") to correct the disabilities of our monetary system, have killed millions of jobs with unconstitutional treaties and the list goes on and on. Below are just a small sampling of the truth about what's underway and can't be stopped because the numbers are too big and so is the level of systemic corruption.

"It is natural for man to indulge in the illusions of hope. We are apt to shut our eyes against a painful truth, and listen to the song of that siren till she transforms us into beasts...Suffer not yourself to be betrayed with a kiss." Patrick Henry, Speech on the Stamp Act, Virginia Convention, March 23, 1775

In many columns I have recommended people get their affairs in order because our situation is only going to get worse, not better. Not for a long time to come. I've been so fortunate to have learned from brilliant scholars like Dr. Edwin Vieira about our monetary system. While I'm not a financial analyst (and having nothing to sell), I've also learned why it's so important to protect your assets with precious metals like gold. From personal experience I can tell you had I not listened to my good friend, Harvey Gordin, (my story here) we would be like the thousands in Natomas Park (Sacramento) with a underwater mortgage:

"I am just going to swallow my pride and walk out. I have to. The market for homes is not going up."-- Tasha McLaughlin, 33, of Sacramento, Calif. discussing with the Wall Street Journal her home, bought for $256,000 in 2004 and now worth less than $80,000.

Harvey began educating me back in 1998 about precious metals and I'm so glad I listened, not just to him, but also, Bob Chapman, who pens the International Forecaster.

What happens if (or, perhaps, when) states begin to default because they're drowning in debt for public pensions and dried up tax revenues because millions in their state are unemployed? What happens when Uncle Sugar can no longer print enough confetti to satisfy debtors? Do even know where your 401(k) retirement is invested? Most people don't have a clue nor do they even understand markets or investing. Will you let your 401(k) again hemorrhage thousands of dollars or will you take control of what you have left and put it into gold (and silver)? Besides bullets and seeds for a garden this year, are you going to protect your assets? Americans should be scared to death about what is underway because the lies coming out of the media and paid mouthpieces on cable TV are just that.

It makes me sick to my soul that so many Americans are either blind to the truth or simply don't understand the threat to their future is very real. Many states will be introducing sound money bills and let us pray they get passed, but it's almost too late. Again, I can't recommend highly enough the 4 DVD set, The Purse and the Sword, featuring Dr. Edwin Vieira. It truly is the quintessential learning tool for Americans and state legislators. Forget the Outlaw Congress. With the exception of a few like Ron and Rand Paul, most are illiterate when it comes to economics and the rest are simply corrupt.

Back in February 2007, Edwin wrote a column titled, The Shearing is Nearing. He was spot on and so is Harvey Gordin when it comes to understanding owning gold. Too many Americans simply don't understand it does no good to have $50,000 or $200,000 in their 401(k) or savings account if that paper is worthless. If you are worried about your assets, give Harvey a call at 602.228.8203 or visit his web site. Despite attempts over the past several years to suppress the price of gold by manipulating the market, the price will continue to rise as it has for the past decade. I hope the links below will drive home the urgency of self survival because that's what it will come down to in this country. Not a pretty picture, but hiding from the truth won't make the ugliness go away.

If we get a chance, I will continue with explaining Samson, regarding the times of Samson and Delilah.

→ Judges 16:1-22 ¹Now Samson went to Gaza (This name means "strong" or "goat") and saw a harlot there, and went in to her. ²When the Gazites were told, "Samson has come here!" they surrounded the place and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city. They were quiet all night, saying, "In the morning, when it is daylight, we will kill him." ³And Samson lay low till midnight; then he arose at midnight, took hold of the doors of the gate of the city and the two gateposts, pulled them up, bar and all, put them on his shoulders, and carried them to the top of the hill that faces Hebron. (This name Hebron means "confederacy". They will be judged for Hebron faces the east and it is the place of the bones of Abraham, Sara, Isaac, and Joseph. This may have been 20-50 miles.) ⁴Afterward it happened that he loved a woman in the Valley of Sorek (This name means a "vine", a "hissing", or a "color inclining to yellow". It was located between Gaza and Hebron.), whose name was Delilah (This name means "poor", "small", or "head of hair"). ⁵And the lords of the Philistines came up to her and said to her, "Entice him, and find out where his great strength lies, and by what means we may overpower him, that we may bind him to afflict him; and every one of us will give you eleven hundred pieces of silver." ⁶So Delilah said to Samson, "Please tell me where your great strength lies, and with what you may be bound to afflict you." ⁷And Samson said to her, "If they bind me with seven fresh bowstrings, not yet dried, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man." ⁸So the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh bowstrings, not yet dried, and she bound him with them. ⁹Now men were lying in wait, staying with her in the room. And she said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he broke the bowstrings as a strand of yarn breaks when it touches fire. So the secret of his strength was not known. ¹⁰Then Delilah said to Samson, "Look, you have mocked me and told me lies. Now, please tell me what you may be bound with." ¹¹So he said to her, "If they bind me securely with new ropes that have never been used, then I shall become weak, and be like any other man." ¹²Therefore Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them, and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" And men were lying in wait, staying in the room. But he broke them off his arms like a thread. ¹³Delilah said to Samson, "Until now you have mocked me and told me lies. Tell me what you may be bound with." And he said to her, "If you weave the seven locks of my head into the web of the loom"—¹⁴So she wove it tightly with the batten of the loom, and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he awoke from his sleep, and pulled out the batten and the web from the loom. ¹⁵Then she said to him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and have not told me where your great strength lies." ¹⁶And it came to pass, when she pestered him daily with her words and pressed him, so that his soul was vexed to death, ¹⁷that he told her all his heart, and said to her, "No razor has ever come upon my head, for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother's womb. If I am shaven, then my strength will leave me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man." ¹⁸When Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, "Come up once more, for he has told me all his heart." So the lords of the Philistines came up to her and brought the money in their hand. ¹⁹Then she lulled him to sleep on her knees, and called for a man and had him shave off the seven locks of his head. Then she began to torment him, and his strength left him. ²⁰And she said, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" So he awoke from his sleep, and said, "I will go out as before, at other times, and shake myself free!" But he did not know that the LORD had departed from him. (The Lord departed because Samson had given what was Holy to an unworthy person who was persistent to destroy him, and he did it for sexual pleasure. He gave what was holy to a fornicator. There is an important lesson in this if you think upon it and these days. Do not let the persistent evil ones cause us to break God's Laws. There will be knowledge that is only for His people to have. It will not benefit the enemy, but it will destroy your covering with the Lord -

Hebrews 10:25-27.) ²¹Then the Philistines took him and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza. They bound him with bronze fetters, and he became a grinder in the prison. ²²However, the hair of his head began to grow again after it had been shaven.

→ Judges 16:23-31 ²³Now the lords of the Philistines gathered together to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice. And they said: "Our god has delivered into our hands Samson our enemy!" ²⁴When the people saw him, they praised their god; for they said: "Our god has delivered into our hands our enemy, the destroyer of our land, and the one who multiplied our dead." ²⁵So it happened, when their hearts were merry, that they said, "Call for Samson, that he may perform for us." So they called for Samson from the prison, and he performed for them. And they stationed him between the pillars. ²⁶Then Samson said to the lad who held him by the hand, "Let me feel the pillars which support the temple, so that I can lean on them." ²⁷Now the temple was full of men and women. All the lords of the Philistines were there—about three thousand men and women on the roof watching while Samson performed. ²⁸Then Samson called to the LORD, saying, "O Lord GOD, remember me, I pray! (Take notice that he was asking the Lord to remember that walk and purpose that He had brought him forth - to be a test that was as a testimonial judge of the Philistines, and all His Judgments are by His Words.) STRENGTHEN ME, I PRAY, JUST THIS ONCE, O GOD, THAT I MAY WITH ONE BLOW TAKE VENGEANCE ON THE PHILISTINES FOR MY TWO EYES!" (Take notice that this is very important. The eye of the body is the lamp of the body. God gave us two so that we have the ability to see clearly the Ways of God that are Righteousness and Justice - Genesis 18:19. Samson was anointed to see His Words from birth and to walk in the Ways of His Words as a judge of testing and of testimony of God's Words, to the Philistines. Samson was asking the Lord to judge the work that he - Samson - had done before the Philistines, for he had been sent as a test to the Philistines to see if they would see His Works and turn to humble themselves before God, but they had not. Thus, Samson was asking of the Lord to judge them for what they had done. However, what Samson was also asking of the Lord was to sacrifice his blood as the testimony of His Words to the Philistines. He did not pray to God for vengeance to revenge what had been done to himself. That is a misunderstanding of the walk and testimony of Samson. Samson was offering to give up his life for the Glory of the Words of God and for the testimony of the Plan of God. He came as a judge and he gave his life as a Testimony to that work. The pillars are the symbol of the place where the Law of God is given. His two ways are likened to two great pillars - pillars of the words of Righteousness and Justice. In the book of Ezekiel it is revealed that the two pillars of the New Temple of god will have a Palm Tree engraved on each of the two pillars. And those pillars represent the Good Works of God that are done when we walk in the Ways of His Words of Righteousness and Justice within His Will. These two pillars were in the temple of their god that was Dagon. Dagon was a god of agriculture and fertility. The word Dagon comes from the root word "grain", but interestingly it was like a worship of using a fish hat. The Catholic Pope's tall fish symbol hat is a worship of this fish hat that celebrates Dagon. Samson knew that this was a Judgment of God's Words on the Philistines for the Words of God that was shown in them and that they had rejected to hear and to see when it had been shown to them by testimony by whom the Lord had sent to them - Deuteronomy 18:19.) ²⁹And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars which supported the temple, and he braced himself against them, one on his right and the other on his left. ³⁰Then Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines!" And he pushed with all his might, and the temple fell on the lords and all the people who were in it. So the dead that he killed at his death were more than he had killed in his life. ³¹And his brothers and all his father's household came down and took him, and brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of his father Manoah. He had judged Israel twenty years.

In the past months we have consistently seen how the Lord is bringing forth a New Heavens and a New Earth in these days. From the article below one can see that the world's top scientific leaders have not only to the plans of God made clearly known in the Scriptures, but also they do not have a single clue to the true laws of science that rule over the heavens. The Lord says that from this type of man, run away, for they are headed to destruction and taking many with them. For people in charge of understanding the heavens, they have no clue to the ways of the heavens. The people at NASA need to go back and start over at Genesis 1:1 before they soon end up in the destructions of Proverbs 1:12.

→ Matthew 7:24-29 ²⁴"Therefore whoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on the rock: ²⁵and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it did not fall, for it was founded on the rock. ²⁶"But everyone who hears these sayings of Mine, and does not do them, will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand: ²⁷and the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house; and it fell. And great was its fall." ²⁸And so it was, when Jesus had ended these sayings, that the people were astonished at His teaching, ²⁹for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. (The Lord spoke these sayings through the use of the Pure Language of God and with the meanings of these sayings as they are understood by those in the Kingdom of Heaven and not of the languages of the earth and as teachers of earthly things. Today, if we will read these teachings with the knowledge of His Words then we will interpret them completely differently and with far more understanding of the greatness of what Jesus actually stated. In a few of these teachings I added some insights from the knowledge of His Words. It is why we need to have support so that we would be able to fully explain these teachings so that we would get the fullness of the meanings out of them. I can only do what I am able with the resources that are made available. It is a shame that in the past seven years this teaching was not supported, for it would have uncovered so much knowledge for people to understand for use in these days of the Tribulation that are now coming upon us.)

→ Revelation 18:1-4 ¹After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, HAVING GREAT AUTHORITY, AND THE EARTH WAS ILLUMINATED WITH HIS GLORY. (This is the Evening of His Day and IT IS the Appointed Time of His Appearing like Light for our Judgment! It is the Time of the Wheat Harvest!) ²And he cried mightily with a loud voice, saying, "Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and has become a dwelling place of demons, a prison for every foul spirit, and a cage for every unclean and hated bird! ³For ALL THE NATIONS have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, the kings of the earth HAVE COMMITTED fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her luxury. ⁴And I heard another voice from heaven saying, "COME OUT OF HER, MY PEOPLE, LEST YOU SHARE IN HER SINS, AND LEST YOU RECEIVE OF HER PLAGUES."

NASA's Hansen: Impose Chinese Totalitarianism on America

Kurt Nimmo, Infowars.com, January 18, 2011

Totalitarian thugs love China. They love its authoritarian government and absolute political power. One such thug is the climatologist James Hansen of NASA. Hansen thinks America needs to adapt Chinese authoritarianism in order to force climate change down the throats of the American people.

"I have the impression that Chinese leadership takes a long view, perhaps because of the long history of their culture, in contrast to the West with its short election cycles," writes Hansen. "At the same time, China has the capacity to implement policy decisions rapidly. The leaders seem to seek the best technical information and do not brand as a hoax that which is inconvenient."

Because the U.S. government has not imposed draconian climate change measures on the people, Hansen insists a boycott is in order.

"After agreement with other nations, e.g., the European Union, China and these nations could impose rising internal carbon fees," he writes. "Existing rules of the World Trade Organization would allow collection of a rising border duty on products from all nations that do not have an equivalent internal carbon fee or tax."

According to Hansen, we have two choices - either carbon fascism or a forced descent into third-world misery. "The United States then would be forced to make a choice. It could either address its fossil-fuel addiction... or... accept continual descent into second-rate and third-rate economic well-being," he writes.

"Has this guy ever heard of the Gang of Four?" muses Patrick J. Michaels of the Washington Times.

"Or the Cultural Revolution, which killed those who were inconvenient? Or the Great Leap Forward, which used the best technical information to determine that a steel mill in every backyard was a good idea?"

Estimates of the number killed by Mao vary, but it is generally agreed to be well over 40 million. Some say he killed over 70 million.

Mao conducted bloody rural and urban purges, killing millions. The so-called Great Leap Forward resulted in the death of between 20 and over 40 million people while the Cultural Revolution killed off an additional 7 or so million. More than a million died when China took over Tibet.

China's authoritarian government routinely imprisons people for speaking out against the government. It is called the Laogai prison system. The Chinese government states that "forced labor is a means toward the goal of thought reform."

In China, "thought reform" or thought control is considered the optimal goal. It is psychological and spiritual submissiveness often achieved through violence. It is the envy of totalitarian thugs around the world.

The Laogai system also engages in widespread organ harvesting. This ghoulish practice is part of the Chinese economic system and integral to its political system. In 1984, China implemented a "provisional regulation on the use of executed prisoners' corpses and organs." Chinese officials admit that by 1996 around 20,000 kidneys already had been harvested from executed prisoners.

None of this seems to bother James Hansen. Is it possible he would support stealing organs from climate denial prisoners? Is he for an American version of the Laogai for climate change thought criminals?

James Hansen should be promptly removed from his position as the head of the NASA Goddard Institute for Space Studies.

The House of Representatives will resume business today. Part of that business will be working to repeal Obamacare. In addition to rolling back Obama's totalitarian health care, the House should think about getting rid of James Hansen.

He is an enemy of the republic and needs to be removed from his government position immediately.

The Lord says that in this Day it will be like the times of the famine of Joseph when the food was scarce. It was available but the price cost you all your income, all your assets, all your property, your freedom, and also the separation of your family. The following is an article from Mike Adams' NaturalNews.com on the dwindling food supply.

→ Revelation 6:5-6 ⁵When He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, "Come and see." SO I LOOKED, AND BEHOLD, A BLACK HORSE, AND HE WHO SAT ON IT HAD A PAIR OF SCALES IN HIS HAND. ⁶And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A QUART OF WHEAT FOR A DENARIUS, AND THREE QUARTS OF BARLEY FOR A DENARIUS; and DO NOT HARM THE OIL AND THE WINE."

Global food supply dwindling, hard-hit populations at the brink

Wednesday, January 19, 2011 by: Alexander Frantzis, citizen journalist

Learn more: http://www.naturalnews.com/031049_food_supply_population_control.html#ixzz1BVVjAic

(NaturalNews) A rapid increase in demand coupled with insufficient food production has stretched the world's food supply to the limit. Already, food prices have hit record highs and food riots have recently broken out in several countries. Yet experts fear this is only the tip of the iceberg, and we may be on the verge of a cutthroat competition for control of the remaining food supplies once an inevitable disruption occurs.

In Tunisia, riots over food prices and corruption forced the president to flee country and slash food prices in an attempt to contain them. Protests and riots over high commodity prices have since spread to Algeria, Libya, Morocco, Yemen and Jordan. In response, each respective government has begun implementing fiscal packages to temporarily ease prices and restore political stability.

Unfortunately, this problem is anything but temporary. The current food distribution system aimed at improving market efficiency and profit is lacking in safeguards from disruptions in the food supply. Market economics have shifted food production to specialized regions, leaving many places incapable of independently cultivating food. Government grain supply stocks, designed to guard against food shortages, are nearly gone, with most remaining stocks in China. By the USDA's recent estimates, its soy bean stocks are now at a 30 year low.

Price and demand for many food staples have rapidly increased for reasons beyond just population growth. The recent explosion of the middle class in Brazil, India and China - and the heightened level of resource consumption concomitant to it - has generated a demand the market is ill prepared to handle. Additionally, increasing oil prices have further exacerbated the cost of traditional food production and transportation, while also leading to food being diverted for biofuel production, further increasing demand.

Unlike previous food shortages, this one was not caused by a bad harvest. The last three years have produced bumper crops with record yields, yet demand is simply outstripping the natural supply. The Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) reported on Wednesday that global food prices had hit a record high and were likely to continue increasing. In the words of the FAO's senior economist, "we are entering danger territory".

Other leading figures share these sentiments. Robert Zoellick, president of the World Bank, warns that the rising prices are "a threat to global growth and social stability", and French President Nicolas Sarkozy has identified them as a top priority when he chairs the G20 economic group this year.

Lester Brown, president of the Washington-based Earth Policy Institute, poses the obvious question. If the system is this close to the brink with bumper crops, what will happen when we experience a bad year? "The reality," he says, "is that the world is only one poor harvest away from chaos. We are so close to the edge that politically destabilising food prices could come at any time."

Up to this time, the increasing food prices have mostly been felt by the poor and been easy to ignore. With processed food composing the majority of food consumption in the first world, only a small percentage of total cost correlates to the raw materials used to make these goods. With over half of individual income in many countries going directly to food supply, an increase in food costs is devastating.
